ASSAILED JUDGE COMES TO GRIEF

Prominent Macon, Ga., Man Called Emory Speer Venal and Corrupt

IS ARRESTED FOR CONTEMPT

Threatens to Go Higher Up, and Ask for Investigation—An Old Bankruptcy Matter—Letter to Taft in Relation Thereto.

Macon, Ga., July 30.—W. A. Huff, twice mayor of Macon, several times a member of the Georgia General Assembly, at present water commissioner of the city, and 81 years of age, was today arrested on a charge of contempt of court by an order of United States District Judge Emory B. Speer.

He was held in a bond of $1,000 to appear before Judge Speer tomorrow. The arrest followed a lengthy letter to Judge Speer, in which Huff charged him with being a "venal and corrupt" judge. The letter was delivered to Judge Speer at his home last night and at noon today Col. Huff was arrested.

Col. Huff's estate has been in bankruptcy for nearly 13 years. He alleges that when he went into bankruptcy he was a wealthy man, with plenty to pay his creditors and still leave him a fortune. He says that he now is penniless, that the estate has been eatten up in fees and sttill is in bankruptcy, and that a bank in Macon for years had had $94,000 of his money without paying interest on it.

Many aspersions on Judge Speer's public and private life were also made.

This afternoon Judge Speer made it a matter of court record.

Col. Huff announced tonight that he was sending copies of his charges to President Taft and to every member of Congress in an effort to have an investigation.

BRYAN GIVES $1,000

Nebraskan Will Help Along Democratic Campaign Fund

Seagirt, N. J., July 30.—Governor Wilson announced tonight that William J. Bryan had contributed $1,000 to the Democratic National campaign fund, addressing the contribution to Seagirt. Mr. Bryan accompanied his check with a personal letter which was not made public.

The Governor received word today that Representative Ollie M. James, chairman of the Notification Committee, had advised the Democratic Governors of the country to attend the notification here August 7th. The Governor said he hoped they would all come.

Governor Wilson talked with J. Taylor Ellyson, Democratic State chairman, of Virginia, late today.

The Governor was especially pleased with a declaration of Mr. Ellyson, his old time friend, that Virginia, the nominee's native State, intended to do more than her share towards financing his campaign. He had written, Mr. Ellyson said, to the editors of most of the Democratic papers in the State asking them to open campaign contribution funds and from 75 to 100 had signified their intention of so doing.

GRACE WANTS REVENGE.

Atlanta Husband Said to Have Lost All Love for Wife.

Atlanta, Ga., July 30.—The relentless desire of Eugene Grace for revenge upon the wife whom he declares tried to murder him in his sleep, is the most remarkable and sensational feature of the trial now in progress.

Paralyzed from his waist down, he lies on his cot in the court room with his steely eyes fixed always upon the woman who is his wife and whom the one desire of his life is now to send to a felon's cell.

Such bitterness, such hatred, such vindictiveness do the eyes of the broken man blaze forth that Mrs. Grace is careful never to look in their direction. When she forgets and turns to that side of the court room she shudders, and the nurse always by her side has recourse to the little hypodermic needle which has already made more than one puncture in the prisoner's fair arm.

There is absolutely no trace of former love in Grace's heart. He regards his wife as the vampire who has sucked his life-blood, and the one desire for which he lives is revenge.

KILLING IN JACKSONVILLE.

One Man Kills Another in Boarding House Quarrel.

Jacksonville, Fla., July 30.—W. H. Warren was shot and instantly killed here tonight by J. L. Dedge, upon whom it is said the dead man had fired with a shot gun. Dedge returned the fire with a magazine rifle, shooting Warren three times. The shooting is said to have resulted from Dedge taking the part of a woman at whose house he boarded, when Warren threatened to give her a horse whipping. Warren was a former business man in the city and Dedge is a contractor. Dedge telephoned the county sheriff's office and made an appointment for a deputy to come and arrest him. He claims self defense.

THE HOUSE STANDS PAT

Forced Three Tariff Measures Back Upon the Senate — Excise Tax Bill Among Number—Legislative Programme

Washington, July 30. — With machine-like precision, the Democratic House today forced over all opposition three tariff measures back upon the Senate. They were the wool and sugar tariff revision bills, and the Excise Tax bill and all were sent back with none of the Senate's amendments accepted. On the wool bill no conference was asked. The House left it flatly to the Senate whether that branch desired to pursue the legislation further.

The Senate tonight was in a quandary as to the programme it would adopt in further consideration of the three bills. The regular Republicans were reported to be favorable to a plan whereby they would absent themselves from the chamber, thus giving the Democrats a chance to pass the measures, and send them along for the Presidential veto. The Republican "insurgents," however, opposed this scheme and insisted that the differences, where they are reconciliable, be threshed out in conference.

Senate Democrats enjoying the Republican disagreement will seek to take advantage of it. Some concerted plan of action will probably be adopted tomorrow morning when the Senate Democrats caucus on the wool measure. It is admitted that the whole tariff programme will be discussed.

The wool tariff revision bill was the first taken up in the House today. There was virtually no debate, except a statement by Majority Leader Underwood and a short reply by Representative Payne, of New York. Motions by Mr. Payne and Representative Crumpacker, of Indiana, to concur in the Senate amendments were voted down, 159 to 78, and 172 to 56. The last named vote automatically rejected the Senate changes.

Mr. Underwood next called up the Excise Tax measure which unamended, he said, was "the greatest piece of remedial legislation for the benefit of the masses of the people that had been enacted in a quarter of a century." He charged the Senate with having sought to kill the measure by tacking on as amendments the repeal of Canadian reciprocity and a provision for the continuation of the tariff board.

The Canadian reciprocity amendment was lost, 127 to 107, while that providing for the tariff board met the same fate, 130 to 98.

On this measure Mr. Underwood asked that the Senate be asked to confer with the House. Speaker Clark accordingly named as conferees for the House, Representative Underwood, of Alabama; Hull, of Tennessee, Palmer, of Pennsylvania; Payne, of New York, and McCall, of Massachusetts.

The House "Free Sugar" bill was reached last. As amended by the Senate, the measure provided for a retention of $1.60 on sugar, a reduction of thirty cents a hundred pounds from the existing rate. It also, among other changes, abolished the Dutch standard. Representative Payne defended the amended bill and warned the Democrats that they were seeking to sign the death warrant of the beet sugar industry in the country by taking off the duty. The House voted for a conference 144 to 84. The Speaker then named as managers for the House in the conference, Representatives Underwood, Harrison, of New York; Kitchin, of North Carolina; Payne, of New York, and McCall, of Massachusetts.

VACATIONISTS "DUCKED"

Side-Wheeler on Which They Were Passengers Rammed

Boston, Mass., July 30.—More than 300 returning vacationists from Maine resorts, went through an ocean accident off the New Hampshire coast amid fog and darkness early today when the side-wheel steamer City of Rockland, from the Kennebec river, for Boston, had her bow crumpled in a collision with the collier William Chisholm. Staunch bulkheads kept the Rockland afloat while a smooth sea and the fact that the Chisholm swung alongside immediately after the collision enabled the passengers to be transferred to the collier without loss of life.

A few of the passengers suffered minor injuries from the collision. A score, mostly women and children, were thrown into the sea when the bow of a life boat fell from its davits. All were rescued. Six life boats were launched during the few minutes of excitement, following the collision, but a majority of the passengers scrambled over the side of the collier from the deck of the Rockland.

THE CHICAGO CONVENTION.

Reservations Being Made at Hotels for Roosevelt Delegates.

Chicago, July 30.—Reservations for delegations from 19 States to the National Progressive convention were made today at downtown hotels and Progressive leaders announced before Saturday every State in the Union will have been heard from. At the same time members of the committee in charge of the convention arrangements stated that the seat sale would amount to about $25,000, if it did not reach a higher figure.

Pennsylvania Progressives telegraphed that they would bring a delegation of 100; reservations were made for 150 from New York; 70 from Massachusetts; 36 from Alabama; 30 from Maryland; 48 from Tennessee, and 40 from Virginia.

JAPAN IN MOURNING FOR DEAD MIKADO

Library of Congress

Self Restraint and Diguity of People Uuder Great Sorrow is Marked

FUNERAL ABOUT SEPT. 1 ST.

Emperor Yoshihito Takes Charge of Affairs of Government—Salutes Will be Fired Today—Effect on Business

Tokio, July 30.—The era of Taisei—"great righteousness"—has commenced. The era of Meiji—"intelligent administration"—closed with the accesion of Yoshihito. The death of the Emperor Mutsuhito while causing widespread grief, has had small effect on normal conditions here.

There has been a remarkable absence of demonstrations of any kind and aside from the closed banks and commercial houses, the crepe-bound flags at every entrance and evident signs of mourning by foreigners and natives alike, the nation moved along on its accustomed business.

A special chamber in the palace has been arranged for the reception of the coffin containing the body of the dead emperor. The coffin reposes on a draped dais, covered with a white cloth, in the center of this simply furnished apartment. It was surrounded throughout the day by the members of the royal family.

The Emperor and Empress, the dowager empress and the imperial princes and princesses formed the sole guard and kept vigil, which will be maintained throughout the private lying in state prior to the funeral. This is expected to take place about September 1st, although the exact date has not been determined. A company of imperial infantry surrounds the palace. Thousands of personages called at the palace during the day. These included the entire diplomatic corps. The Emperor Yoshihito was occupied with business of state. He conferred with the councillors, took active part in the arrangements and appointed the chief officials of his household.

A salute of 21 guns for the new Emperor will be fired tomorrow and the following day sixty guns enumerating the age of the dead Emperor.

The home department has issued instructions for one year's mourning but it is understood that full mourning will be limited to fifty days in order to prevent disturbance of business.

The self-restraint and dignity of the entire people under a great sorrow and a sudden shock, involving perhaps a superlative change and certainly irreparable, was one of the most striking features of the first day of mourning.

BANKS CONSOLIDATE.

Two Million Dollar Institution Grows Out of Merger.

Richmond, Va., July 30.—Directors of the First National Bank and the National Bank of Virginia met yesterday noon and unanimously recommended to their respective stockholders that the two institutions be consolidated. A call has been issued to the stockholders of both banks for meetings to be held on August 29th, for the purpose of ratifying the action of the directors. By the terms of consolidation, the National Bank of Virginia will go into voluntary liquidation and the larger institution is to be known as the First National Bank, the capital stock of which is to be increased from $1,000,000 to $2,000,000.

Though the action of the two boards practically assures consolidation, it is of course necessary to await confirmation by the stockholders, which, it is expected, will be given. In the circular mailed yesterday to all stockholders, the plan of consolidation is fully placed before them and many reasons advanced to show that under the new regime, not only will facilities be increased, but the interests of both large and small depositors more thoroughly conserved.

The directors of the new institution have agreed to indorse the following officers in the event that the consolidation is effected:

W. M. Habliston, chairman, board of directors; Col. John B. Pursell, president; John M. Miller, Jr., vice president; W. Meade Addison, cashier. The assistant cashiers will be named later.

MAY BE WRECK OF NINA.

Derelict Discovered by Norfolk Cutter Probably Lost Tug.

Norfolk, Va., July 30.—The revenue cutter Unalga discovered today near Winter quarter a derelict that may prove to be the tug Nina which foundered in a gale in January, 1910, while en route to New York from this port. Twenty-nine men went down with the tug and for two weeks the Navy Department had revenue cutters hunting the seas for the missing tug. Nothing was ever heard of her. The Unalga marked the derelict with buoys and the department will send divers to examine the wreck so as to ascertain if it is really the Nina.

Adel, Ga., July 30.—Mary Lee Adams, 5 years old, was killed and L. A. Taylor, a little boy, was badly hurt, when a 29-year-old mule they were driving, ran away six miles from here today.

GOVERNOR WILSON'S CALLERS

Senator E. D. Smith Says House Wants Protection—Negroes Call on the Future President—His Residence in the South.

Trenton, N. J., July 30.—Governor Wilson had a long conference at the State House today with Senators Mark Smith, of Arizona, and Ellyson D. Smith, of South Carolina, upon the tariff question and how he will deal with it in his speech of acceptance. After the interview the South Carolina Senator said that he hoped the Governor would so treat the tariff in his speech as to inspire the confidence of the business men of the country.

"There is a growing sentiment in my State and in the South generally," Senator E. D. Smith said, "for adequate protection. In my opinion the reduction should be gradual. High protection is now the law. We ought to give our friends who believe in it a chance to come back into the fold."

The South Carolinian said that he had told this to Governor Wilson and that he and his colleague had also discussed with the nominee the plan of the campaign generally and in their localities specifically.

J. Taylor Ellyson, former Lieutenant Governor of Virginia, an old friend, took luncheon with Governor Wilson. A delegation from the United Negro Democracy of New Jersey, called on the Governor and told him that men of their race wanted to support a candidate in sympathy with their aims and ambitions in life.

"I was born and raised in the South," the Governor told them. "There is no place where it is easier to cement friendship between the two races than there. They understand each other better than elsewhere. You may feel assured of my entire comprehension of the ambitions of the negro race and my willingness and desire to deal with that race fairly and justly."

M'NAB ARRESTED

Badly Wanted In Charlotte, Brought Back to Answer Charges

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Charlotte, N. C., July 30.—The local authorities have in their custody W. C. McNab, who was a much wanted man in this place. McNab formerly ran an automobile school here and one day departed with a bit of money belonging to his students and several hundred dollars he had fleeced a number of local merchants out of by exchanging a worthless check for the cash. McNab has gone under several aliases and was first located in Mobile, Ala, by the Branch Detective Agency, of this place, the man gave the officers there the slip and nothing was heard from him until he was later located by the same people in Kansas City, Mo., where extradition papers were sent for him. McNab is in jail awaiting the next term of court. The detectives that located the man, are the same ones that arrested a number of house-breakers in Wilmington last Winter.

NEGRO PROGRESSIVES

They Hold State Convention In Virginia and Send Delegates

Richmond, Va., July 30.—Eighteen negroes tonight attended what purported to be a State convention called for the purpose of effecting a State organization of negro Republican voters, and to elect delegates to the National convention of Progressives at Chicago, August 5th. The meeting named delegates to Chicago after adopting a resolution limiting the representation to four. Henry Mallory and J. R. Pollard, from the Third district; P. W. Harris, of the Fourth district, and W. H. C. Brown, of the Second, were elected. George W. Bragg, of Richmond, was made State chairman.

OUTLINES

The mother of Mrs. Daisy Opie Grace was the most interesting witness in the Atlanta trial of Mr. Grace yesterday, the State seeking to show that Mrs. Grace upbraided her husband for accusing her of the crime even before she was confronted with it.

Among Gov. Wilson's callers yesterday was Senator E. D. Smith, of South Carolina, who told the nominee that the South was beginning to be a protection country; a delegation of negroes also had a talk with the Governor, who referred to his residence in the South and race conditions there.

The Foreign Affairs Committee of the Senate will consider the Magdalena Bay purchase again today and may ask the Senate to reaffirm the Monroe doctrine in unmistakable terms.

The House yesterday sent back to the Senate the three tariff bills recently passed, refusing to recede from its position and making Senate legislative programme for the remainder of the session rather speculative.

The Minnesota convention of the third termers was held yesterday without a discordant note; Taft electors in the State with a single exception have resigned; reservations are being made in Chicago for the convention next week.

New York markets: Money on call steady 2 3-4 to 3 per cent.; ruling rate 2 7-8; time loans strong, 60 days 3 1-2 per cent.; six months 4 3-4 to 5 per cent. Flour barely steady with demand fair. Wheat, spot firm; export 1.11 1-4 f.o.b. afloat. Corn, spot firm, export 81 3-4 f.o.b. afloat. Oats, spot easy. Spot cotton closed quiet, 13.10. Turpentine steady. Rosin firm.

PLAYING POLITICS FOR SOUTH'S VOTE

Roosevelt Wants Southern Man and Democrat for Convention Chairman

NEW ORLEANS MAN NAMED

Reply Being Prepared to White House Statement of Mr. Taft—White Supremacy Sanctioned by Colonel Roosevelt.

Oyster Bay, N. Y., July 30.—The suggestion that a Southern man and a Democrat be chosen as permanent chairman of the National Progressive convention, was approved by Col. Roosevelt, who said on his return from New York today that John M. Parker, a New Orleans Democrat, who was named by Senator Dixon today as the probable chairman, was his choice, although he added, it will be, of course, the work of the convention itself to select the man.

Since the announcement was made that ex-Senator Albert J. Beveridge, of Indiana, is to be temporary chairman, Col. Roosevelt, continued, he has received many letters and telegrams from delegates to the convention expressing the belief that as Mr. Beveridge is a Northerner and a Republican, a Southern Democrat should be permanent chairman.

It is Col. Roosevelt's intention to use his influence to have the Chicago convention give equal recognition to all parts of the country as far as possible, and it is for this reason, he said, that the suggestion of Mr. Parker's name appealed to him.

Senator Dixon said it was his understanding that in most of the contests in Southern States between whites and negroes for seats in the Chicago convention, the white delegations were the ones selected under the official arrangements made between the members of the provisional National committee. These contests would be decided, he said, by the committee. He made it clear that an effort was being put forth to build up the party in the South largely under the leadership of the whites. He said he had just received a letter from Mississippi to the effect that the movement was making rapid progress in that State under white leadership.

A reply to the National administration's statement given out in Washington last Sunday, in defense of President Taft's title to the nomination by the Chicago convention is to be made by the National Progressive leaders in a few days. Col. Roosevelt said that Bainbridge Colby, of New York, a lawyer who prepared the cases for the Roosevelt contestants for seats in the Republican convention, was at work on the reply.

After it had been announced this afternoon that Col. Roosevelt would leave for Chicago on Saturday, a change in plans was made and tonight it was said that he would depart at 4 P. M. Sunday, reaching Chicago early Monday morning.

The Motive.

New Orleans, July 30.—John M. Parker, for years a leader in the Democratic politics of Louisiana, whom Senator Dixon today announced as the probable permanent chairman of the National Progressive Convention in Chicago, issued a statement today in which he said he was assured of the support of Col. Roosevelt for a platform plank pledging Federal aid for the solution of the flood, drainage and navigation problems along the Mississippi, Missouri and Ohio rivers.

GREAT WIRELESS PLANT

Radio Communication Proposed With Places In Distant Brazil

New Orleans, July 30.—The property of the old New Orleans Driving Club including 20 acres near the city park, was bought yesterday by the United Fruit Company to be used as the site for what the company proposes shall be the largest wireless station in America. The station is expected to establish wireless connections between here and points as far away as Brazilian stations.

The United Fruit Company already has a station here, but it will be dismantled upon the completion of the new one. Four towers, the tallest 300 feet high, will be erected. Work on the station is to be commenced at once.

The company's officials estimate that close to $200,000 for the property and the equipment will be expended. The ground unoccupied by the wireless apparatus will be converted into a park where homes will be built for the operators

THE MEXICAN TROUBLES.

Federals and Rebels in Prolonged Clash Near Mexico City.

Mexico City, July 30.—A battle between Federals and rebels has been waged for three days and is still in progress 45 miles from here, according to meagre reports. Details are lacking, but the Federal loss has been reported variously from 50 to several times that number. A reported attempt of the rebels to cut through the Federal lines and march upon this city could not be confirmed tonight.

London, July 30.—Bullion amounting to $161,000 was taken into the Bank of England on balance today.

GRACE TRIAL IN PROGRESS

Mother of Accused Wife Most Interesting Witness Introduced at Atlanta Yesterday—Insurance Policy

Atlanta, Ga., July 30.—Mrs. Daisy Opie Grace's greeting to her wounded husband at the hospital the night of her arrest, before she knew he accused her, was dwelt upon with great stress by the prosecution in the Grace trial today.

"What are these things they are saying about me?" were the wife's first words as quoted by Morris Priolieu, a State's witness, while the jury was excluded.

"Daisy, why did you shoot me?" was Grace's response.

Previously, Solicitor General Norsey, while the jury was excluded, had indicated how he hoped to secure the conviction of the accused, in the following words:

"This is a case in which the State must rely entirely upon circumstantial evidence. We expect to show that Daisy Grace faced her husband and upbraided him for accusing her of the deed when not a living soul had intimated to her that she was suspected or accused of the crime.

From that time on, however, the defense successfully blocked every effort of the State to get the interview between husband and wife before the jury. The prosecution attempted to prove that Mrs. Grace had no opportunity to learn of her husband's accusation between the time she was informed of the shooting at Newnan and her meeting with him here.

Grace's mother, Mrs. S. L. Hill, first testified that she was with Mrs. Grace all that time but admitted under cross-examination that she rode from the station to the hospital in another cab. Morris Priolieu, Grace's chum, testified that Mrs. Grace learned nothing from him en route from the station.

He admitted that she talked to a number of persons in the reception room of the hospital although within his hearing. He added that she commenced to cry while in the reception room.

Mrs. Hill was the most interesting witness of the day. She maintained her composure well and answered questions freely although she became confused several times under cross-examination. Through her the State brought out the alleged motive, the collecting of a $25,000 insurance policy which Mrs. Hill testified Mrs. Grace told her Grace had taken out at her request.

Four mysterious letters, two typewritten on the same machine and signed by Grace, were constantly referred to during the afternoon session. By tacit agreement, their contents were not discussed although several witnesses were called to identify them. They are supposed to be the famous "alibi" letters, the existence of which seems never to have been clearly established up to this time.

Indications are that the case may reach the jury by tomorrow night or Thursday. The defense refuses to state whether Mrs. Grace will take the stand or whether they will offer any witnesses.

Grace was carried into court as usual this morning, but the fetid air of the court room was too much for him and he was unable to attend the afternoon session.

STONEWALL JACKSON FLAG.

Colors Under Which Intrepid Leader Was Shot Exhibited.

Trenton, N. J., July 30.—Wilbur Sudler, adjutant general of the New Jersey National Guard, surprised Lieut. Governor Ellyson, of Virginia, while the latter was visiting Governor Wilson, at the capitol today by showing him a flag which Mr. Sudley believed to be that under which Stonewall Jackson received his mortal wound. Mr. Ellyson was so impressed that he is going back to Virginia to try to identify the flag. If he succeeds both he and General Sudler will try to have it restored to the State of Virginia at a formal ceremony to be attended if possible by Governor Wilson and a regiment of the New Jersey National Guard.

The flag is a division corps flag and was captured at Chancellorsville, Va., by a New Jersey regiment the day after Jackson was shot. It has remained in the keeping of New Jersey ever since. Mr. Ellyson expects to see Capt. J. P. Smith, of Richmond, Va., who was with Jackson when he was shot and will attempt through him to identify the flag.

The flag is of fine silk, made, Mr. Ellyson thinks, by women of Virginia, with diagonal bars of blue traversing it. Six stars are on each bar.

WOMAN LECTURER DRENCHED.

Socialist Soaked After She Refuses to Cease Speaking.

Tallapoosa, Ga., July 30.—In the midst of a Socialistic lecture here last night Mrs. Cates Richard O'Hare, of St. Louis, was drenched with water and her audience dispersed by the fire department.

Standing in an automobile, Mrs. O'Hare was delivering a bitter denunciation against the employment of children in cotton mills. Mayor C. E. Pearce ordered the marshal to place the woman under arrest, but it is said that official refused to carry out the order.

In the excitement, some one turned in a fire alarm. The firemen responded quickly and the meeting ended abruptly when a powerful stream of water was directed at the throng.

MILLIONS YEARLY PAID OUT IN GRAFT

Most Sensational Police Exposure in the History of New York

ROSENTHAL DEVELOPMENTS

Exactions From Gambling Houses and Others Amounted to $2,400,000 Last Year—Rose and Webber File Affidavits.

New York, July 30.—Sworn statements tending to show that the annual graft collected by high police officials in New York City from gambling houses, and other illegal resorts has amounted within the last year to $2,400,000, are in the hands of District Attorney Whitman tonight.

The statements were made to the district attorney today by "Bald Jack" Rose, self accused graft collector for Police Lieut. Charles Becker, head of the strong arm squad, who tonight began his second day of incarceration in the Tombs prison as an alleged instigator of the murder of Herman Rosenthal, the gambler.

This brought a yield of $2,400,000 protection money which was equally divided, according to the story told by Rose, among four high officials of the police department, one of them being Becker, and from other evidence the district attorney has collected, he has reason to suspect that each $600,000 was further distributed. In other words, there were four separate systems or bureaus of police graft each headed by a high police official.

Mr. Whitman, it was learned, has the names of the other police officials whom Rose has named and his further efforts in this now most sensation "police exposure" that New York has ever seen will be directed toward strengthening the evidence which points against them. One of the officials named, it was learned, holds a position at headquarters and is in a strict sense a civilian employe.

The name of a former city official has been brought to the attention of the district attorney as having been closely connected with the "graft system," but it was learned that the evidence thus far obtained against him is not of a tangible nature. The evidence, however, is being closely followed by the detectives in the employ of the district attorney.

It also became known tonight that if Lieut. Becker will tell all he knows, not only in respect to his own alleged complicity in the murder, but will unfold the inner workings of the graft system, insofar as it may involve the "men higher up", no effort will be made to enforce the extreme penalty for the crime for which he now stands accused—the murder of Rosenthal—but he will be granted leniency on that condition only.

The alleged fact of the $2,400,000 graft fund was told to him by Becker, Rose said in a sworn statement today. Becker, he said, told him that he handled $600,000 a year and that equal amounts were handled by three other officials. This, he said, came in collections from gambling houses, pool rooms, houses of ill repute and the like.

Rose said he had collected gambling graft for Becker for months and he promised the district attorney that he would obtain for him the rates paid by gambling houses, make a tabulation of what these receipts amounted to monthly and yearly, and how the money was handled. That there were other collectors besides Rose is the assumption of the district attorney, who hopes to identify them.

"Becker told me that he was the Prince of the Police Department" Rose said. "He paid me liberally out of my collections, but I never was able to keep what I got. I was a fool gambler and gambled it all away."

Part of the business between the gamblers and the police, the district attorney was told, was boldly done through checks, although his efforts to secure evidence in this form have proved fruitless.

"Bridgie" Webber, the gambling house keeper, who has also confessed and whose story largely resulted in the arrest of Becker, promised Mr. Whitman, it was learned, to corroborate Rose's statement in regard to the collections. Incidentally, Webber today admitted to the district attorney that $2,000 was the sum which he received to pay the men who actually fired the shot which killed Rosenthal.

In regard to the murder itself, Rose stated to Mr. Whitman that the reason why it was done so openly and that no effort was made to cover the number of the big gray murder car as it drove up to the Hotel Metropole to "get" Rosenthal, was that Becker was "relied upon for protection."

Despite the furore caused by the police scandal Mayor Gaynor today voiced his complete confidence in Commissioner Waldo, head of the department. Asked to comment on the situation the mayor said: "I can only repeat as heretofore that I hope everything will proceed in order and that all of those concerned in the murder will be convicted."

The details of how Rosenthal was shot down were related officially today for the first time by two of his companions, who were eye-witnesses of the murder, in the trial of Patrolman William J. File before Deputy Com-

Boston, July 3.—Boston won from St. Louis today 7 to 6, in a game that went 14 innings. The locals apparently had it won easily in the regulation time until Donnelly, who had pitched well, slipped up in fielding and St. Louis scored three runs and tied the score in the ninth. Tyler, who succeeded Donnelly, held the Cardinals safe, while Boston, in the 14th, won out on Sweeney's single off Willis, a sacrifice and Kling's single off Sallee.

REQUIREMENTS OF AVIATORS.

Conditions Necessary to License From Aero Club of America.

Chicago, July 30.—First details of the requirements to be exacted of American aviators in qualifying them for the new superior brevet or master flyers' license being arranged for by the Aero Club of America, became known here today. They are declared by aviation experts here to be more exacting than requirements of European aviators for similar licenses.

First tests in America for the master's licenses, it was announced today, will be held on Cicero field here September 10th to 20th. Following are the requirements for the new license, as tentatively decided upon:

Applicant must be 21 years old; must make a cross-country flight of 50 miles, around a point 25 miles away; must fly to a height of at least 2,500 feet, shut off his motor there and glide to a point not more than 100 meters (328 feet) from a previously indicated spot, and must have taken a physical examination showing him sound.

As nine Chicago aviators filed the first applications, the first test trials will be held here.

SINGING CLASS COMES.

Children From Odd Fellows' Home to Give Concert Tonight.

The singing class from the Odd Fellows' Home at Goldsboro will arrive at 1:40 o'clock this afternoon from Whiteville and will give a concert in the Academy of Music tonight, beginning at 8 o'clock. The children will be guests in the homes of different members of the order while in the city. The concerts given by the children from this institution are of a very high order and never fail to entertain the people. As usual, the attendance tonight will doubtless be large.

A great many tickets have already been sold by the boys and girls who entered the contest for the prizes for selling the highest number. There are two prizes, each being $5 in gold, one for the girl and one for boy selling the largest number of tickets over 100. not yet ended.

SHARKEY AND WIFE MAKE UP

Ex-Prize Fighter Forgiven and Divorce Suit Dropped

(Special to Baltimore Sun).

New York, July 29.—The dove of peace roosts again upon the lintel of Mr. and Mrs. Tom Sharkey's home in Sheepshead Bay. Sharkey, who, his wife has said, becomes a "roaring lion" when he has a drop too much, has been metamorphosed into a lamb. Mrs. Sharkey has forgotten and forgiven; likewise she has discontinued her suit for alimony, counsel fees and a separation.

The only person connected with the disturbance who is not supremely joyful is Attorney Newton G. McGovern, counsel for Mrs. Sharkey. He is wondering when he will get his little fee, and how much it will be.

He wants $250. "Sharkey came to my office in great distress," said McGovern. "He implored my aid in inducing his wife to withdraw her suit. He promised to treat her like a princess and to be as good as gold. Impressed, I told him where she was. I guess they are reconciled, all right."

88 YEARS OLD; WINS FOOT RACE.

Aged Scotchman Was Champion in Native Land.

New York, July 30.—The spectacle of an 88-year-old man running a foot race was seen yesterday at the games of the Scottish Clans, which were held at Celtic Park, when David Anderson, of Clan McGregor, Yonkers, and born in Alberfeldie, Scotland, in 1824, was returned the winner of a 100-yard dash for old men, in which the conditions called for the allowance of a yard a year for every one over 50, with a 52-year-old youngster on the scratch.

This, therefore, warranted the man from Aberfeldie being in receipt of 38 yards' handicap from J. Richardson, whom he defeated in the handiest fashion imaginable. The old gentleman, who was a Scotch champion many years ago, showed that he had not forgotten how to put his best foot forward, and stepped out in his manner of three-score and ten years ago, although not with the dash which, as he said, he would like to put into his sprinting.

GRAND CIRCUIT MEET

Records Smashed Yesterday at Cleveland— Braden Winner

Cleveland, Ohio, July 30.—Promise of fast time at the North Randall track in the grand circuit races was fulfilled today. The large crowd in attendance saw records smashed, the chief performer in this iconoclasm being Braden Direct, the black colt of Baron Direct.

Entered in the 2:06 pacing for the Forest City $2,000 stake, with Egan holding the reins, Braden won the second and third heats, after having finished ninth in the opener.

Bayonne, France, July 30.—The championship of the world with a military rifle has been won by Capt. Castro, of Spain, who scored 506 points in the international tournament now in progress here. Capt. E. W. Eddy, of the Ohio team finished third with 496 points.

Atlanta, Ga., July 30.—Dog days are not far off and many estimable citizens are already "crazy with the heat," yet be it said to the credit of the Georgia Legislature, not a single "freak" bill has yet been introduced. Nobody has tried to legislate against women riding astride, or tried to tax bachelors and prevent married men from wearing moustaches, or anything of the kind. However, the session is

SCHOOLS IN HARNETT

Institutes In Session—Fire Causes Excitement—Other Notes

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Dunn, N. C., July 30.—County Superintendent J. D. Ezzell is holding a two-weeks session of the regular teachers' institute, for the teachers of the county, at Lillington. He is being assisted by Prof. Joe E. Avent, of Goldsboro, and Miss Ada Womble, who has the chair of pedagogy at Peace Institute. A large number of teachers are in attendance, and at the close on August 2nd, there will be a big school rally for the whole county, celebrating the past decade in the school work in Harnett county.

The town was thrown into a state of excitement last night about 3 o'clock by a fire which totally destroyed the main building and a good deal of lumber at the planing mill of the Dupree Massengill Lumber Co. The loss is practically covered by insurance, but it is not known just what the amount will be. The planing mill is situated near the oil mill and it was feared for some time that this would be burned.

A large number of people from Angier, Duke and Coats on the D. & S., and from Dunn and points on the A. C. L., went to Norfolk on an excursion this morning. The excursion is being run by Dunn men and the large crowd is quite gratifying to the management.

Some time ago we challenged the State on the length of names. And we now have two citizens who are claiming the State championship for marksmanship. Thousands of swallows have been roosting in the shade trees at the Central Sanitorium for some time, and have gotten to be a nuisance to the patients. Last evening Dr. Highsmith and Mr. C. J. Bell decided to drive them away by shooting them. They fired into the drove, one shot each and brought down 82 birds.

A son of a very substantial farmer and mill man, Mr. S. C. Neighbors, was badly hurt last night when his four-mule team became frightened and ran away. The young man was thrown out of the wagon and the wheel ran over his head inflicting a severe scalp wound. The young man was carried to the Central Sanitarium and is resting very well this morning.

Dunn farmers cannot stand to see South Carolinians getting ahead of them, hence they have been on the look out for the army worm. Mr. T. D. Gerald, a leading farmer and a large stock dealer, has a large field sowed in millet. And on yesterday he found that the worms were devastating one part of this field. He bought a large lot of Paris green and is trying to stop the pests before they gain much headway.

Music and love have always gone hand in hand, and Dan Cupid is still doing business in the same old way. Last week Mr. L. P. Joyce, who has been selling pianos in this community for the past few months, went to his home in Virginia for a visit and came back last week, having taken unto himself a wife. Mrs. Joyce was Miss Mary Wolfolk, of Bedford, Va.

Mr. A. W. Angel, who has been assisting Mr. Joyce, mysteriously disappeared a few days later and turned up last Saturday afternoon and is now introducing Mrs. Angel to his many friends. Mrs. Angel was Miss Annie Blount, of Martinsville, Va.

Dr. T. B. Allen is spending some time with his sister, Mrs. J. W. Langley. Dr. Allen graduated in Richmond this Spring and has taken the examination in Virginia and North Carolina successfully passing both State boards.

Mayor O. P. Shell, State manager of the National Union, has returned from Macinac, Michigan, where he went as a delegate to represent this State at the annual meeting of his order.

MARSHALL'S NOTIFICATION.

August 20th Named as Date and Coliseum, Philadelphia, Place.

Indianapolis, July 29.—Governor Thomas R. Marshall will be notified of his selection as the Democratic nominee for Vice President of the United States on August 20th, at the Coliseum at the State Fair Grounds.

Governor Marshall will inform Judge Alton B. Parker, chairman of the notification comittee, of the date at once.

Tentative plans to turn the notification into a monster celebration were made at a meeting of Democratic candidates for State offices, National Committeeman Thomas Taggart, State Chairman Bernard Korbly and members of the State committee late today. Chairman Korbly conferred with Governor Marshall before the meeting which was merely a ratification of the plans proposed by the chairman.

Governor Marshall has been at work for some time upon his speech of acceptance. It will be his first public utterance since his nomination for the Vice Presidency and in it will be embodied the platform upon which he will stand, if elected.

Chairman Korbly at the meeting today was authorized to appoint committees and make arrangements for the ceremonies. It has been reported that Governor Wilson, the Presidential nominee, may come to Indianapolis for the ceremony, and it was decided to bend every effort to get the New Jersey Governor to attend. Democrats of National prominence from all over the country are expected.

CAMP PETTUS MANEUVERS

Sham Battle Saturday—Attack and Defense by Batallions

Anniston, Ala., July 30.—Orders were issued today at Camp Pettus, it was stated, for the sham battled to be fought Saturday between the "Northern" and the "Southern" division of the State troops, now engaged in Summer maneuvers here. It is underdstood the first, second and third Kentucky, reinforced by part of the 17th United States infantry, and 11th United States cavalry, will oppose the balance of the troops comprising the First Alabama, Second South Carolina and a part of the regulars.

Today the National guardsmen were put through attack and defence by battalion, while the officers were given instructions in fortification.

WHITE STAR DISASTER

British Board of Trade Court Rules on Titanic

London, July 30.—The judgment of the British Board of Trade court of inquiry into the disaster to the White Star Liner Titanic, announced today, concludes that the collision of the Titanic with the iceberg, was due to the excessive speed at which the ship was navigated; that a proper watch was not kept; that the ship's boats were properly lowered but that arrangements for manning them were insufficient; that the Leyland Liner California might have reached the Titanic if she had attempted to do so; that the track followed was reasonably safe with proper vigilance, and that there was no discrimination against the third-class passengers in the saving of life.

The court of inquiry exonerates J. Bruce Ismay, managing director of the White Star Line, and Sir Cosmo Duff-Gordon, one of the passengers, from any charges of improper conduct.

The judgment recommends more water-tight compartments in sea-going ships, the provision of lifeboats for all on board and more efficient drills of the crew as well as a better look-out.

Much of the judgment is highly technical. In it there was no argument and no direct reference to the inquiry by the committee of the United States Senate.

Casas Grandes, Chihuahua, July 30.—Federal forces attempting to hem in the rebels here and at Juarez suffered their first defeat yesterday. Big System May Be Behind Development In This State—Raleigh News of A Day—Owen Butler Escapes—Notes

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Raleigh, N. C., July 30.—The report credited by the best informed railroad men here, that A. W. Thompson, now third vice president, in charge of the operating department of the Baltimore & Ohio Railroad, is to succeed E. T. Lahb as president of the Norfolk Southern Railroad Co., brings a strong impression that the Baltimore & Ohio is coming into North Carolina through control of the Norfolk Southern system, and that it is B. & O., interests that are pushing the construction of the Raleigh-Charlotte & Southern, now under way as a division of the Norfolk Southern.

If this is the case, as numbers of observant business men believe it is, it means renewed and vast development for eastern, central and western Carolina through greatly multiplied freight and passenger facilities, and establishment of competitive conditions. The Baltimore & Ohio, with trunk lines from Chicago to Baltimore and St. Louis to Baltimore and network of lesser lines, through a Bay line of steamers come down to Norfolk, connecting there with the Norfolk Southern system that has a network of valuable lines throughout Eastern Carolina, extending westward to Raleigh and now building rapidly toward Charlotte. The invasion of the B. & O., interests will be hailed with delight here.

Charters were issued today for the Ideal Dry Goods Co., of Winston-Salem, capital $50,000 authorized and $1,000 subscribed by B. M. Hitchcock, H. L. Trotter and Mrs. H. L. Trotter to conduct a general dry goods store at the corner of Fourth and Trade streets.

An amendment to the charter of the Jefferson Standard Life Insurance Co., of Raleigh, was filed today changing the home office of the corporation to Greensboro in pursuance of a determination of the stockholders and directors.

Governor Kitchin has granted a commutation for J. W. Moneely, of Burke county, serving eight months for selling whiskey, the commutation being to four months, expiring July 27th. It has developed that the prisoner is an epileptic and further service of sentence may seriously injure his health.

The funeral of Comrade A. D. Hedgpeth, who died at the Soldiers' Home yesterday evening, was conducted from the Home this morning, Mr. John T. Pullen officiating. He was 71 years old, came from Wilkes county to the Home last March as a member of Company A, 11th North Carolina Regiment.

The second dangerous patient to get away from the State Hospital for the Insane here within a week was Owen S. Butler, who it is learned, eluded the attendants yesterday and is still at large, with no trace of him yet discovered. Butler was brought here recently from Sampson county, after he had tried to commit suicide by jumping from the Cape Fear bridge at Fayetteville. He eluded the attendants yesterday while numbers of the patients were returning from walks in the grounds. He slipped into a tunnel and hid there until the way was clear for him to get away. He is red-haired, was wearing a blue shirt and black trousers and sandals peculiarly strapped.

The Anchor Banking & Trust Co., of Raleigh, recently chartered, is to be ready to open for business about August 15th. The minimum capital is $50,000, but already the stock subscribed is understood to amount to $65,000. So that the promoters have determined to begin with $100,000 instead of $50,000 paid in. The corporation has leased the Martin street store in the Woodard building, corner of Martin and Fayetteville streets. And also leased the old Lewis pool room store on Fayetteville street, its lease to begin after the lease the Citizen's Bank has for temporary quarters. Then a fine banking house is to be constructed through the combination of these two store rooms, giving entrances on both Fayetteville and Martin streets. J. O. Ellington, who is to be president of the new bank, has already come from Fayetteville to direct preparations of opening up the new bank.

MINNESOTA TEDDYS.

Taft Electors Resign With a Single Exception—Platform.

St. Paul, Minn., July 30.—The third party in Minnesota was launched today without a discordant note. The convention in which every Congressional district was represented, practically steered clear of State politics, confining itself to speech-making, lauding Col. Roosevelt, adopting resolutions, choosing delegates and alternates to the National convention at Chicago and Presidential electors.

There was a landslide from the Taft electoral ticket nominated last May to the Roosevelt ticket named today, John Rundquist, of Duluth, representing the Ninth district, being the only one remaining, all of the others having resigned.

At a recent meeting of the Presidential electors nominated at the Republican State convention, all of the electors nominated at that time resigned with the exception of Mr. Rundquist.

Hugh T. Halbert, of St. Paul, first brought the convention to its feet by linking the name of Col. Roosevelt with that of Lincoln, and compared the birth of the new party with that of the Republican party.

The platform adopted endorses the direct primary, election of United States Senators by direct vote, repudiates President Taft and the National Republican convention; favors forming a National Progressive party and insists on the adoption of the initiative referendum and recall in the party platform.

..Theatrical..

Headed by a John Bunny film, which means one of the Vitagraph Company's biggest films, with the noted actor in the stellar role, the New Bijou will today offer a programme of both exceptional size and merit. It will present for the pleasure of the folks of Wilmington no less than four masterpieces in moving pictures, and will follow this big show up tomorrow with offering the costly and big film production of "The Coming of Columbus," and in making this presentation the Bijou will do so in manner in keeping with the importance of the film. Special effects will be used and everything done to afford the most perfect production of this film, or films, because there are three large reels. The admission will, of course, not be advanced, remaining at 5 cents.

But while awaiting the presentation tomorrow of this big film amusement lovers should by all means witness today's splendid offering—the greatest ever made in Wilmington. "A Persistent Lover," is the photoplay in which John Bunny will appear and it is something elaborate, as well as furiously funny.

A big patriotic film, "The Close of the American Revolution," is also a star today, and it will furnish fine information, as well as dish up swell entertainment.

"Kitty in Dreamland," is a film that will especially please the children, being something more wonderful and more fascinating than "Alice in Wonderland."

"Earl Court, London," is a great educational film on today and will supply a big amount of information. It should not be missed. But don't miss today's extraordinary Bijou offering anyway. You can't afford it.

At the Grand Theatre.

Today will be an event extraordinary at the Grand Theatre. As stated yesterday the management will put on for today Selig's great masterpiece, "The Coming of Columbus," in three reels. This film stands paramount, supreme, unapproachable among modern picture productions.

This production cost $50,000 and took three years to make. There are 350 people in the cast. It is a historical review of incidents in the life and discoveries of Christopher Columbus, a magnificent visualization in three reels and should be seen by old and young alike. The story is written by Charles E. Nixon and produced by the Selig Polyscope Co., as the one big offering in moving pictures for the year. There are three reels, each complete within itself and running for 1,000 feet each. Educational as well as interesting and pleasing, this big attraction should bring to the Grand the largest business to which it has played in many moons.

AGRICULTURAL TRAIN.

Profitable Trip to Kinston—Visitors From Golden West.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Kinston, N. C., July 30.—A large number of farmers visited the "agricultural car," which is being sent out over the tracks of the Atlantic Coast Line Railroad, in this city yesterday afternoon. Discourses were made by Prof. J. C. McNutt, of the A. M. College, on the live stock industry; and by experts on agricultural implements and farm drainage. Unusual interest was displayed by the auditors, and that the visit of the car, with its exhibits of farm machinery, drainage material and fancy stock, will result in good to Lenoir county is assured. The car was sent from here to Goldsboro.

Dr. Floyd Swift, formerly of Kinston, and well known in many places in North Carolina, is visiting his mother here. Dr. Swift came from Los Angeles, Cal., where he graduated from the parent college of osteopathy, by way of Panama. He, with his wife, were members of a party of Westerners who made the trip to New York via the isthmus. Dr. Swift will locate in High Point for practice.

Receiving many attentions at the hands of his numerous friends, is Dr. Joseph Foy, of California, who is visiting Rev. C. W. Howard at The Oaks, near the city. Over three decades ago Dr. Foy came to this county from New Hanover, and established in Kinston what was known as the Kinston Collegiate Institute, an educational institution of much influence and force for a time. Many of the leading citizens here were pupils of his, including his host, Rev. Mr. Howard, who afterward became a member of Dr. Foy's faculty. The fine old gentleman afterward served as principal of the male department in the Wilson College; pastor of a leading St. Louis church; professor of languages in Christian College, at Columbia, Mo., and teacher in the public schools of St. Louis, retiring in June, 1911, after a half century of unbroken educational and religious labors. He will visit several points in North Carolina before returning to his ranch home in Southern California, where he resides with his children.

VIRGINIA MOOSERS.

Adopt Platform Calling for Woman's Suffrage—Officers Elected.

Roanoke, Va., July 30.—The Virginia Progressives in conference here today perfected a permanent organization, adopted a party platform, elected delegates and alternates to the National convention at Chicago and elected members of the State executive committee. The platform's principal declarations included the initiative, referendum and recall; the legalized primary system, abolition of the fee system, adequate pensions for the Confederate soldier, and his widow, and votes for women.

The delegates selected were: Delegates at Large—R. T. Thorpe, E. H. Witten, Thomas Lee Moore, J. S. Strouss, J. S. Browning, Walter Graham, R. R. Fairfax, E. S. Simpson, C. W. Surface and W. J. Moorman.

District Delegates—Henry Warden, I. Branch Johnson, J. H. Powell, R. C. Smith, C. W. Jones, S. O. Porter, W. S. French, R. W. Brown, E. H. Witten, and E. J. McCulloch.

Thomas Lee Moore was unanimously selected State chairman.

DR. R. M. NORMENT PASSES

Venerable and Highly Esteemed Robeson County Citizen Ends Long and Distinguished Career. Funeral at Lumberton.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Lumberton, N. C., July 30.—Dr. Richard M. Norment, Lumberton's oldest citizen, died this morning at 2 o'clock, after several months' illness. While much of the time he had been able to sit up, he had not been strong enough to leave his home, but two or three times in over a year. For several days it had been known that he must soon answer to the call of the grim messenger, yet his passing was a great shock and not only Lumberton, but the whole county is bowed down in grief as it has not been in a long time.

Dr. Norment was born in or near Charlotte, February 1st, 1829, and was therefore, in the 84th year of his age. He came to Lumberton about 60 years ago and with the exception of a few years spent in Charlotte during the eighties he has resided here ever since. When he was 16 or 17 years old he went to the Mexican War, where he remained until its close. When the war began between the States, he formed the first company to leave this county, having been made captain of that company. At the close of the war he returned home and from then until old age and failing health forced him to retire, no man ever did more for suffering humanity in this county. He was always ready to go, day or night, to rich or poor, regardless of race, whenever and wherever his services were needed. It made no difference to him whether a patient had money or not, his aim was to relieve the suffering.

Back in the dark days of reconstruction, when no one else could be induced to take the lead, he went to the front and pulled the county from under negro rule, being the first Democratic State Senator elected from this county after the war. He served the county in the Legislature several terms and was at one time a candidate for Congressional honors.

On May 15th, 1900, he was appointed postmaster at Lumberton, which position he held until his death. No man has ever lived in Robeson county who was more universally beloved than Dr. Norment and the announcement of his passing will cause much sorrow and gloom in hundreds of homes where in times past he has ministered to the suffering.

Dr. Norment was twice married and is survived by one son, Dr. T. A. Norment, by the first union, and by the widow and two sons of the second, the two last being Messrs. R. M. Norment, Jr., of the Morning Star staff, and Mr. Wallace Norment, a clerk in the postoffice. The funeral will be conducted from the residence tomorrow afternoon at 3 o'clock, by Rev. J. W. Bradley, pastor of the Methodist church, assisted by Revs. C. H. Durham, pastor of the First Baptist church, and Rev. R. E. Steele, pastor of the Presbyterian church. The burial will be with Masonic honors and the interment will be in the Norment cemetery.

Mayor Caldwell this afternoon wired the Postoffice Department, upon request of citizens, asking that the postoffice of this place be closed tomorrow from 2 to 5, as a token of respect for the venerable Postmaster, Dr. R. M. Norment, whose funeral service will begin at 3 o'clock. Every place of business in town will be closed from 2:30 to 4, so that everyone may attend the service.

BACK TO MATTEWAN.

Harry K. Thaw, in Charge of Sheriff Remanded to Asylum.

White Plains, N. Y., July 30.—Harry K. Thaw, who recently lost his fight in court here for freedom, was taken back to the Mattewan Asylum for the insane today. He made the trip in an automobile and in custody of Sheriff Doyle.

Healthy Mothers

Women who bear children and remain healthy are those who prepare their systems in advance of baby's coming. Unless the mother aids nature in its pre-natal work the crisis finds her system unequal to the demands made upon it, and she is often left with weakened health or chronic ailments. No remedy is so truly a help to nature as Mother's Friend, and no expectant mother should fail to use it. It relieves the pain and discomfort caused by the strain on the ligaments, makes pliant and elastic those fibres and muscles which nature is expanding, prevents numbness of limbs, and soothes the inflammation of breast glands. The system being thus prepared by Mother's Friend dispels the fear that the crisis may not be safely met. Mother's Friend assures a speedy and complete recovery for the mother, and she is left a healthy woman to enjoy the rearing of her child. Mother's Friend is sold at drug stores. Write for our free book for expectant mothers which contains much valuable information, and many suggestions of a helpful nature.

THE MORNING STAR

Published by the
WILMINGTON STAR COMPANY, INC.,
Wilmington, N. C.

Entered as second-class matter at the postoffice at Wilmington, N. C., under Act of Congress, March 2nd, 1874.

FULL ASSOCIATED PRESS REPORT.

PUBLISHERS' ANNOUNCEMENT.

THE MORNING STAR, the oldest daily newspaper in North Carolina, is published daily except Monday, at $6 per year, $3 for six months, $1.50 for three months, 50 cents for one month, served by carriers in the city, or by mail.

THE SUNDAY STAR, by mail, one year, $1; six months, 50 cents; three months, 25 cents.

ADVERTISING RATES may be had on application, and advertisers may feel assured that through the columns of this paper they may reach all Wilmington, Eastern Carolina and contiguous territory in South Carolina.

Obituary sketches, cards of thanks, communications espousing the cause of a private enterprise or a political candidate, and like matter, will be charged at the rate of 10 cents per line, or if paid cash in advance, a half rate will be allowed. Announcements of fairs, festivals, balls, hops, picnics, society meetings, political meetings, etc., will be charged under same conditions, except so much thereof as may be of news value to readers of the paper.

Advertisements discontinued before expiration of contracts are charged transient rates for time actually published. Payment for transient advertisements must be cash in advance. Contract advertisers will not be allowed to exceed their space at same rates, or advertise anything foreign to their regular business without extra charge. Advertisements to occupy special place will be charged for according to position desired.

TELEPHONES: Business Office, No. 51; Editorial and Local rooms, No. 61. Call either, if the other doesn't answer.

COMMUNICATIONS, unless they contain important news, or discuss briefly and properly subjects of real interest, are not wanted; and if acceptable in every other way, they will invariably be rejected unless the real name of the author accompanies the same, not necessarily for publication, but as a guarantee of good faith.

Even men who are in the wrong approve what is right.

The under dog in the fight may have started it by trying to monopolize the bone.

A "true blue" Democrat wouldn't be caught wearing a "red bandana" around his neck.

Some people don't want to keep history straight for fear it won't cover up a great many crooked transactions.

There is not much fighting in the Turco-Italian war. The Turks prefer to keep on running away and living to fight another day.

A rat infected with the bubonic plague has been discovered in New Orleans, but the Crescent City does not seem to be rattled the least bit.

Teddy has called on men of all parties to come to his support, but so far he has not called upon men of all colors to come to the aid of the new party.

The Treasury Department has warned the public to look out for $20 bogus notes. Those who do not handle money in notes that size are not at all interested in the Treasury's warning.

A game of poker broke up in a big row a few days ago in Indiana, because the lucky man held five aces. After November Col. Roosevelt should go to Indiana and do some missionary work for the square deal.

It takes hard work to keep up with the Salisbury Post. It makes improvements so often that we have to keep a sharp lookout in order to recognize the paper. It is now a neat and excellent six-page paper.

Says the bulletin of the Chicago School of Sanitary Instruction: "Never put ice in your drinks. Cool them by standing on ice." Yes, but suppose the ice would not be big enough to stand on with both feet?

The Gould lines which transported the biggest part of the Texas peach crop paid $250,000 for ice used in the refrigerator cars. The fruit business is a fine promoter of ice factories and crate factories. One industry seems to bring about others.

In the campaign four years ago the Hon. Leslie M. Shaw was running all over the country boosting high prices and declaring that high prices would make the country prosperous. There is no wonder that we now hear nothing of such bonehead economists as High Price Shaw.

Near New Rochelle, New York, a young man saved four pretty girls from drowning, and as a token of their gratitude each one hugged and kissed him. As he will also get a Carnegie hero medal, it will show how much better pay some men get for the same work than others.

No one thing is responsible for the high cost of living, but the high tariff is one of the most burdensome and inexcusable causes. High salaried officials and governments, National, State, county and municipal, conducted extravagantly and inefficiently, also contribute a large share to the burden. Excessive freight rates, poor distributing facilities, and plutocratic ideas with small incomes to carry them out, all add to the sum total that is so burdensome as to result in dissatisfaction, distress, misery and unrest. The tyranny of the trusts, bolstered up by tariff laws necessarily makes it expensive to exist while they are levying such tribute as monopolies see fit to place upon the people by reason of laws passed for their special benefit.

SOAP BOX QUALIFICATIONS

Mr. Walter Clark keeps on prodding Democratic State Chairman Chas. A. Webb about the ruling as to who shall vote in the soap box Senatorial primary in November, and each time he makes a pass at the State chairman. Mr. Webb gives assurance that his only purpose as State chairman is to act impartially towards all the Senatorial candidates and have the matter settled to the satisfaction of the three aspirants.

It strikes us that the attempt to hold the State chairman personally responsible is entirely out of place. It is to the entire committee to which the appeal should be made, and we cannot conceive that the State chairman is anything but entirely powerless in the matter except insofar as his individual membership in the State committee goes. He may or may not have enough influence over the committee to control it to some extent, but it is not reasonable to suppose that he can do so or would do so if he could. Therefore, it is assuming entirely too much to be getting after the State chairman under the impression that it lies in his power to say who shall or shall not be qualified to vote in a strictly Democratic primary. The appeal should be made to the entire committee, and not to one member, even though he be the State chairman.

We are satisfied the State chairman and the whole committee will decide the matter satisfactorily, and it ought not to take but fifteen minutes to decide it. If it is to be a Democratic primary only Democrats are entitled to vote. A Democrat is a man who has always voted the Democratic ticket or who will do so on the 5th of November. Democrats don't want any other kind of voters to nominate their candidate for them. They want the nominee to be a Democratic nominee nominated by Democrats. Young men who vote their first Democratic ticket in November will be entitled to vote in the Senatorial primary in November, and men who abandon other parties and vote the Democratic ticket on the 5th of November, under the proper affirmation, ought to be recognized as Democrats. A Democrat who votes the Republican ticket becomes a Republican, and a Republican who gets good and votes for Wilson, Locke Craig, and the State and National tickets ought to be given the privileges of a full-fledged Democrat.

We do not think Simmons, Kitchin or Clark can object to strengthening the party by taking in new recruits, and we are inclined to believe that all the candidates would have an equal showing in securing his proportion of support among the new voters. We don't think there need be much fear that Republicans are going to skin their shins going to a Democratic primary, and it is counting chickens before they are hatched to predict that voters with former Republican proclivities would pick out Senator Simmons for their man. Of all the Democrats in the State, Simmons is the most cordially despised by Republicans and Populists, and, besides, the Governor is personally as popular a man as there is in the State, while all North Carolinians recognize the eminent ability and worthiness of Judge Clark.

Those are three candidates who can afford to stand on their own merits, and they ought to get together and assist the committee in agreeing upon the qualifications of the voters who shall be entitled to vote in the soap box primary to be held on the same day that the National election is to be held. If we had a legalized primary system with provision for registration of Democrats under oath, there would be no disputing about who is a Democrat and who isn't. At the same time we believe Democrats can hold a pretty fair soap box primary, but it certainly ought to be the last to be held under Democratic auspices.

RIDING TWO HORSES.

It is just like such a Rough Rider as Col. Roosevelt to ride two horses, and it seems that is what he proposes to do to try to get elected President for a third term. In plain words, he is going to ride the Republican party as well as his own Progressive party for the purpose of securing his election if it be possible.

Meanwhile, the inconsistency of riding two party horses does not occur to the Colonel. He has declared that on next Monday at Chicago he will organize a third party and give Republicans and Democrats an opportunity to "cut loose" from the two old parties. He has declared that he is done with the Republican party and had denounced both old parties as corrupt and unequal to the demands upon them. He has denounced the Republican party even more bitterly than he has the Democratic party, and he has scored it for thieving and steam rollerism, yet he is still willing to use that bone-spavined old party for his selfish purpose.

At Oyster Bay on Sunday he and Senator Dixon announced that they are going to steal Republican organizations in Kansas, Minnesota, South Dakota, Idaho, California and Washington. In those States the Roosevelt men are in control of the party organizations and they propose to nominate Roosevelt electors as the regular electors of the Republican party. The Colonel now announces that there will not be a straight third party fight in every State, and that "wherever Col. Roosevelt and his followers can do so, they will make a working agreement with the Republican party, which will aid in obtaining the electors for Roosevelt and save the State tickets for the Republican leaders."

That Roosevelt is the same Roosevelt who denounced the Republican party as corrupt and guilty of theft, and yet he is to help it elect State tickets wherever he can make a trade for electors. He is willing to help a corrupt and venal party to hold sway over the States if he can but be elected President.

What man would command confidence if he were to denounce a gang of thieves and then make a bargain with them to aid in his own plot to steal electors for himself? Clean politics and a square deal are made absurdities by such unscrupulous methods.

THE AGRICULTURAL TRAIN

Four thousand people, up to last Saturday, had turned out to meet the "North Carolina Agricultural Train" being operated over the lines of the Atlantic Coast Line under the auspices of the North Carolina College of Agriculture and Mechanic Arts and the United States Department of Agriculture. Great interest in the train and its exhibition is being manifested everywhere, and it is agreed that this demonstration on wheels is really superior in its features and quite effective in its purposes.

Accompanying the train there is an exhibition of fine live stock and modern agricultural implements, while the subject of drainage is made prominent by exhibits of tiling spades, ditch cleaners, and a good assortment of cement and clay tiling, etc. There are six cars in the special train and it is accompanied by lecturers and demonstrators who emphasize the methods of scientific farming, stock raising, dairying, soil building, crop diversification, etc.

The Coast Line's agricultural train is a complete and impressive demonstration, and during its further itinerary, lasting nearly two weeks longer, no farmer in eastern North Carolina should miss it. It visited many places in eastern North Carolina last week and closed the week's run at Goldsboro on Saturday. This week it is coming down the line between Goldsboro and Wilmington, and this city will have the benefit of a stop next Saturday.

Farmers ought to keep up with the schedule and make it a point to meet the agricultural special. It is an agricultural college on wheels, and its purpose is to aid North Carolina in securing agricultural independence. North Carolina raises more money crops than any State in the Union and while we help to supply the world with clothing by producing a million bales of cotton, and while North Carolina tobacco and truck products find an extensive market, yet we buy most of our corn, meat, butter, forage and farm supplies from other States. We can make our State self-sustaining if we will, and the running of such trains as can now be seen this week on the Coast Line is for the purpose of aiding us to gain our independence. All it costs is the time it takes to meet the train, see the exhibits, witness the demonstrations and hear the lectures. It is a great opportunity.

CURRENT COMMENT.

Your Uncle Carl Duncan has been declared winner in the matter of the distribution of the appointments in North Carolina. When it comes to falling right, there is none to beat Mr. Duncan. The other Republicans are left high and dry.—Raleigh Times.

At Gastonia Saturday night Governor Kitchin complained because the newspapers of North Carolina do not mention the Governor of North Carolina as often as they do one of the Senators of this State. The Chronicle reminds the Governor that the newspapers are striving continually to print the news and possibly the Senator is "doin' things."—Charlotte Chronicle.

Congressman Hardwick will have his hands full until after the primary. With W. H. Fleming opposing him, backed by T. E. Watson, he will have a hard fight for his seat. Ten years ago Hardwick defeated Fleming with the help of Watson and the country vote. This year Fleming enters the race at the solicitation of six of the country counties of the district and Watson will work for him.—Savannah News.

How does Mr. Roosevelt intend to overcome the ukase of the insurgent Senators that there must be no third party as they "will not be parties to his plan to run independent tickets in their States" (Iowa, Oregon and Kansas,) Flinn, of Pennsylvania, virtually told Mr. Roosevelt the same thing. The truth has come out at last. If the desires of the third term candidate were followed in Pennsylvania, the result would disrupt the Roosevelt movement there, wreck the State organization, which now, through Flinn, is friendly to Roosevelt and perhaps turn the Keystone State over to Wilson. The Pennsylvania Congressmen and others in many States have taken fright at the Roosevelt programme and are bringing all their influence, and that of the "regular" State leaders, to bear upon the third termer to "modify" his plans, to make his fight only for President and leave Congressional and State tickets out of his ambitious desires altogether. As a National ticket alone would not interest the voters in many States to so great an extent as to break with the party lines, there will be little, if any, incentive to have a new party.—Washington Herald (Ind.)

There promises to be more than the ordinary amount of entertainment in Charlotte, this week, with the farmers' picnic and the good roads meeting. The two events will be entirely independent. The first is to be addressed on the two closing days by Governor Kitchin and Judge Walter Clark, aspirants for Senator Simmons' seat in the United States Senate. Of course, Senator Simmons was invited to add to the entertainment, but he adherred to his announced determination not to leave Washington until Congress had adjourned and he was free to go where he willed. For this consistent course in what he conceives to be his public duty, Senator Simmons is to be commended. There will be some who say that Simmons is "skeered" to come down here and meet Kitchin—for that is what it would amount to—but the cause of Senator Simmons has been committed into the hands of the people. They are looking after that while he is attending to his duties in Washington.—Charlotte Observer.

We are glad to notice that quite a number of farmers of this county have recently installed telephones in their country homes with connection with the Durham exchange. There is nothing that adds more to the comforts and pleasure of living in the country than a telephone. It brings to the home assurances of safety from many evils that come to the country home. The telephone places the home in instant connection with medical aid; it commands instant assistance in case of accident, fire or other calamity, and in case of business it is of very great importance. The farmer who has a telephone in his home saves his horses and teams many needless trips. He can know when to go to market by 'phoning and finding out the price of products on the day he expects to go to market. If prices are low he can wait until next day, or the next week. In fact, the advantages of the telephone in the country home are so numerous that it is impossible to mention them in detail.—Durham Sun.

POLICE RAID LOAN OFFICES.

Multimillionaire Taken to Court in Patrol Wagon.

(Special to Baltimore Sun.)

New York, July 20.—David H. Tolman, multimillionaire loan broker, with loan offices all over the United States, was one of the men arrested when seven simultaneous raids were made on loan offices this afternoon by plain clothes men under Acting Capt. Charles H. McKinney, of the first detective district.

Tolman, whose wealth is said to aggregate $10,000,000 or more, was arrested by a squad under command of Detective McConville in his main offices at 56 Pine street. Tolman's office at this point is known as the "clearing house" for all his numerous loan offices all over the country. The detectives made a clean-up there, confiscating great masses of books from the desks and safes in the suite.

Tolman objected strenuously to the indignity of being placed under arrest before court opened after the luncheon recess. He told the detectives to come back at 2 o'clock and he would be ready to accompany them. McConville, however, armed with a warrant for Tolman's arrest, placed the millionaire in a patrol wagon and had him sent, like an ordinary prisoner, to the Centre Street Court.

Mount Gretna, Pa., July 30.—Perfect weather greeted the Virginia and West Virginia military men as they entered upon another busy day in the United States instruction camp. The morning programme consisted of regimental attack and in the afternoon extended order by companies. The general health of the camp is excellent, the entire sanitary arrangements being perfect.

HOT WEATHER IS QUICK TO AFFECT THE BOWELS

Well-Known Fact That Extreme Heat Conduces to Chronic Constipation

The disposition to eat cold food and indulge in iced drinks is one reason why constipation and diarrhoea is so prevalent in Summer, and there is no time when people should more carefully avoid bowel disturbances, as much serious disease is directly traceable to these conditions. We need all of our strength to withstand the enervating effect of heat.

To regulate the bowels and quickly relieve even the most aggravated case of constipation, the combination of simple laxative herbs with pepsin, known as Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin, is highly recommended by all who have ever used it. Unlike cathartics and violent purgatives, Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin acts gently on the stomach, liver and bowels, without griping or other discomfort, bringing relief in an easy, natural manner. It can be used with perfect safety by the most delicate woman or child, and yet is equally effective for the strongest constitution. Mild, pleasant to take, and inexpensive, it is the ideal family laxative. By cleansing the bowel tract thoroughly and eliminating the foreign matter and poisons that irritate and inflame, it will quickly check Summer diarrhoea and restore normal conditions.

Druggists sell Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin for fifty cents a bottle—a larger, family size costs one dollar. Get a bottle and keep it in the house; it will save many times its cost in doctor bills. A free trial bottle, postpaid, can be obtained by writing to Dr. W. B. Caldwell, 406 Washington St., Monticello, Illinois.

THERE IS A DIFFERENCE

Between Promises and Actual Results.

Promises won't overcome hair trouble. The manufacturers of Newbro's Herpicide promise nothing which is not justified by an intelligent use of this preparation. The desired end ultimately becomes an accomplished fact. This is the reason that Herpicide has thousands of satisfied friends all over the world.

By keeping the scalp clean and healthy and destroying the dandruff germ, Newbro's Herpicide makes beautiful hair. Herpicide prevents the hair from falling and allows it to grow unhindered and naturally except in cases of chronic baldness which is incurable.

One dollar size bottles are guaranteed by all druggists to do these things.

THE HOLLY CASE REMOVED

Judge Carter Orders That Celebrated Murder Case be Heard at Burgaw Late in Month of September—Arrangement.

After hearing the arguments of Solicitor Henry E. Shaw, for the State, and Wm. J. Bellamy and C. D. Weeks, Esqs., counsel for the defense, Judge Frank Carter, presiding in Superior Court here, yesterday afternoon ordered the case against J. C. Holly, charged with murder, removed to Burgaw, the county seat of Pender, for trial at the September term of court there. The Holly case will be taken up Saturday, September 21st, the last day of the term in Pender, and the trial will project into the week set for the trial of criminal cases in this county immediately following the Pender term.

In making the ruling Judge Carter declared that he found the fact that public opinion in this county had so crystallized in the case, by reason of two former trials and the wide publication of the case in the two local newspapers, both before and following the April term of court here, that it was practically impossible to secure a fair and impartial jury. Judge Carter stated that he had inquired into the case, and also had considered the matter of transferring it to another county from the standpoint of the effect it would have on the term of court in the county to which it was moved. He said that he had received letters from several attorneys in Pender county protesting against the case being moved to Burgaw, by reason of the greatly congested docket of the Pender Superior Court, and for that reason he desired that arrangements be made so as to interfere as little as possible with the time allotted for the term in that county. He then ordered that it be moved to Pender and that a special venire be drawn early in the Pender term, made returnable Saturday, September 21st, the last day of the September term in Burgaw. A one-week term for the trial of criminal cases in this county immediately follows the Pender term in September and it was his idea to adjourn court here on Monday when it convenes, and let the case in Pender project upon the New Hanover term until it is completed. He stated that by having the venire present Saturday, when the case is taken up, that he believed good progress could be made, and that the case might possibly be completed by Wednesday or Thursday. Court will then be convened here.

The Holly case has been on the docket of this county for about two years. The defendant, who was proprietor of the old Rock Springs Hotel, is charged with murdering his ward, Edward Cromwell, by administering poison and then setting fire to the hotel to conceal the crime. The case has been tried twice, the first resulting in a conviction. Holly was sentenced to be electrocuted, but was granted a new trial by the Supreme Court. The second trial, at the April term of this year, resulted in a mistrial.

Solicitor Shaw, Maj. W. N. Harriss, Clerk of the Superior Court, and Mr. D. McEachern, chairman of the Board of County Commissioners, filed affidavits a few days ago asking that the case be transferred to another county for trial, setting forth as their reasons that it had been twice tried in this county; that it had cost the county over $2,000; that there was no possibility of reaching it at the present term of court, or the term in September, on account of the congested docket; that the newspaperse had published the evidence in detail, and that very few people in the county but who had formed some opinion as to the guilt or innocence of the defendant. They set forth that the expense of transferring the witnesses and prisoner to another county for trial would be greater than if the case was tried again here, but that this would be offset by the probability of a verdict, which, in their opinion, could not be reached in New Hanover county.

Yesterday afternoon during a lapse in the court proceedings, Judge Carter announced that he would hear arguments on the Solicitor's motion to transfer the case to another county. Solicitor Shaw read the affidavits filed by himself and by Chairman McEachern and Maj. Harriss.

C. D. Weeks, Esq., who with Wm. J. Bellamy, Esq., appears for the defendant, then read an affidavit made by Holly, setting forth his arguments against the removal of the case. Holly denied in his affidavit that the State could not obtain a fair and impartial trial, pointing out that the majority of those who had expressed an opinion on the case had stated that the believed the defendant guilty. He admitted that the newspapers had published the case in detail, but contended that the case had attracted widespread attention in the adjoining counties, where the local newspapers circulate by the rural free delivery, asserting that the average citizen of the adjoining counties was as familiar with the case as are those living in New Hanover. The affidavit set forth that the defendant did not believe that the third trial would consume any more time than the former ones, and that if tried in Pender at the September term, it would necessitate the displacement of a large part, if not all the civil docket of the term, as would be the case in this county if tried at the September term. The defendant declared in the affidavit that if the case is tried in Pender county and a conviction is the result, he would in all probability appeal to the Supreme Court, and that the said appeal could not be heard at the Fall term of the Supreme Court for the fifth district, as the transcript could not be gotten up in time; that if the case is tried at the January term, 1913, in this county, and there should be a conviction, the appeal could be heard at the Spring term of the Supreme Court, and while the defendant is anxious to have it tried, he would prefer delay of three or four month in order to have it tried in New Hanover. He pointed out that he is without means and that his counsel were appointed by the court and are serving without compensation; that they had already expended a large amount of labor and considerable money in properly defending him, and that it would be a further hardship upon them to remove the case to another county.

The heavy cost of moving the case and the inconvenience to witnesses for both State and defense are further reasons advanced in the affidavit against removing the case; and it also points out that a motion for removal, with affidavits, was made at the April term of court, following the second trial of the case, and was denied by Judge Ferguson, who ordered that the case be tried at a subsequent term in New Hanover. The contention is that the State is bound by this judgment.

After reading the affidavit, C. D. Weeks, Esq., made an eloquent plea against moving the case, enlarging upon the points mentioned in the affidavit and presenting a number of additional arguments protesting against removal.

Judge Carter stated that one thing that made him hesitate to move the case was the further hardship that such action would impose on Mr. Weeks and Mr. Bellamy. He spoke very highly of the work of the two young men in fighting so hard for their client when they are not getting any remuneration, but he declared that such a sacrifice was one of the noblest things in the legal profession.

He analyzed the situation very carefully, pointing out that even if the majority of those who had expressed an opinion on the case had declared that they believed the defendant guilty, the State was handicapped by reason of this, for the majority of those who had formed opinions were composed of the reading class, or the class from which the most desirable jurors come. Eliminate these and it would be necessary to select the jury from a class hardly qualified for jury service. He discussed the matter in detail, declaring that it seemed to him that the ends of justice could best be served by moving the case to another county. He then made the formal order of removal.

GOES TO ATLANTA.

Mr. H. R. Bates Leaves Wilmington for More Important Position.

Wilmington people will hear with sincere regret that they are to lose as a citizen Mr. H. R. Bates, for the past six years superintendent of the Swift Fertilizer Works. Mr. Bates has resigned his position in Wilmington effective on August 1st, and left yesterday afternoon for Atlanta, Ga., where he becomes general superintendent of the International Agricultural Corporation, one of the largest concerns of its kind in this country. Mr. Bates will be succeeded here by Mr. F. M. Wever, of Savannah, Ga., who has already arrived and taken up the duties of his new position.

Mr. Bates will be joined in Atlanta by his family a little later. They are at present spending a part of the Summer in Boston and will go to their new home early in the Fall. Mr. Bates, since coming to Wilmington has been prominent in the business and social life of the city. A gifted singer, a gentleman of pleasing and striking personality, he has made a host of friends who will regret exceedingly to give him up, but will at the same time be delighted to know of his advancement in the field of his activities. It is understood that as general superintendent of the International Corporation, he will have five or more factories under his supervision and that the new position comes to him at a very largely increased salary.

Beery Willson, for $1,000 and other considerations, lot on northeast corner of 17th and Market streets, 50 by 150 feet in size.

The Recorder's Court

Yesterday's session of the Recorder's court was again marked by a tameness that has been in evidence practically since Superior Court convened last week, and the few cases on the docket were of a minor character. Julia McNeil, colored, fared the hardest of any of the defendants, being fined $10 and costs for disorderly conduct. Albert Smith, William Swindell and Grant Williams, all colored, were each found guilty of having violated the driving ordinance and were let off on the payment of costs. Jas. Abbott, colored, was let off on payment of the costs for violating the hitching ordinance and judgment was suspended on payment of the costs on Walter Murray, colored, charged with riding a bicycle on the sidewalks. Robert Stanley, colored, was found guilty of an assault on a female. Judgment was suspended on payment of the costs.

Enjoyed Pleasant Outing.

Yesterday's Charlotte Observer: "Mr. Wade Harris, editor of The Observer, came in on a late southbound train yesterday morning from Wrightsville Beach. Mr. Harris took some of his companions of the press association at Morehead City and embarked on board the United States revenue cutter Seminole, with Mr. Charles N. Evans and Mr. B. F. Keith, of Wilmington, as guests of Capt. John G. Berry, commander of the ship. They sailed out of Beaufort harbor and past Cape Lookout light by night and down the coast for Southport. They rounded the Frying Pan Shoals lightship at sun-up, towed a four-masted schooner into Southport, and proceeded up the Cape Fear, where they landed at the government wharf in Wilmington. As might be imagined, it was a delightful trip and will furnish good material for The Observer's Side Table readers."

GOOD ROADS CONVENTION

Wilmington Will Be Represented at Meeting in Charlotte Thursday And Friday—Programme Announced

Wilmington will be ably represented at the annual meeting of the North Carolina Good Roads Association, which will be held in Charlotte tomorrow and Friday. The Charlotte-Wilmington highway has been given a place on the programme and the project will be discussed by Maj. A. J. McKinnon, of Maxton, and delegates from Wilmington also may speak on the subject. Mr. M. S. Willard, county commissioner-elect, has been assigned a place on the programme and will speak on the subject of "Wide Tires."

Mr. A. B. Skelding, general manager of the Tidewater Power Company, and one of the leading good roads enthusiasts in this section, left last night for Greensboro to accompany his daughter who will spend some time there and he will go to Charlotte tomorrow morning. Mr. W. D. MacMillan, Jr., another good roads enthusiast, and Mr. H. deW. Rapalje, one of the engineers who made the trip with the pathfinding car from Wilmington to Charlotte some months ago, hope to leave this afternoon or tomorrow morning to attend the convention. Several other Wilmingtonians hope to be able to attend.

It is believed here that within the next 12 months the proposed Charlotte-Wilmington highway will be a reality. Local enthusiasts have not pushed the proposition recently because they realized that but little, if any progress, could be made until a free ferry is established over the Cape Fear river at Wilmington. A bill was gotten through the last Legislature providing that the City of Wilmington and counties of New Hanover and Brunswick establish a free ferry, but it is said that there is some defect in the measure and that the remedy is in the passage of an entirely new bill at the next Legislature. There has recently been a renewal of the talk of annexing Northwest township, Brunswick county, in which event Brunswick county as a whole would hardly be asked to share in the cost of the purchase and maintenance of a ferry. Some of those interested in the proposition seem to be of the opinion that instead of establishing a free ferry a bridge should be constructed across the river at Wilmington.

The following is the programme for the convention:

Thursday, August 1st

Morning session, 10:30 o'clock.

Convention called to order by the president.

Opening prayer, Rev. D. H. Roiston.

Address of Welcome—For Charlotte, Dr. C. A. Bland, mayor; for the Greater Charlotte Club, C. O. Kuester, president.

Capital-to-Capital highway, Leonard Tufts, of Pinehurst.

Reports from representatives of county associations and counties.

"Road Engineers and Their Training," T. F. Hickerson, professor of highway engineering, University of North Carolina; discussion.

Report of committees.

Election of officers.

Adjournment.

Secretary H. B. Branch, of the Chamber of Commerce, yesterday received a telegram from Dr. Jos. Hyde Pratt stating that credentials have been mailed to all of the local delegates, but that if any of them had not received their credentials to please notify them that they are delegates anyway. The delegates from New Hanover county are Messrs. Wm. E. Springer, W. D. MacMillan, Jr., L. W. Moore, W. A. Dick, R. H. Pickett, H deW. Rapalje, A. B. Skelding, J. M. Hall, M. S. Willard and Theo. G. Empie.

NOT GUILTY OF BURGLARY

James H. Beatty Sentenced to Two Years for Carrying Concealed Weapon—Fish Trust Cases Continued

After almost the entire day had been taken up in the selection of a jury, the case charging Jas. H. Beatty, colored, with burglary, was disposed of yesterday afternoon after the first witnesses had testified, when Judge Carter directed the jury to return a verdict of not guilty as to burglary, and sentenced Beatty to two years on the county roads for carrying a concealed weapon. The sentence is to begin immediately upon the expiration of a two-year sentence imposed on Beatty in the Recorder's court for an assault with a deadly weapon on Mounted Officer R. J. Thompson.

Beatty is the negro who shot and seriously injured Mounted Officer Thompson several months ago, and who was in turn wounded by Officer Thompson. The negro was arrested several hours later by Patrolman Chas. E. Wood, after he had resisted arrest and had been shot and slightly wounded by Officer Wood. He is said to be a desperate character, and Judge Carter told him yesterday in passing sentence upon him that he was a bad citizen and was headed for the electric chair as fast as he could go.

The case was taken up when court convened yesterday morning at 9:30 and when the noon recess was taken several venires had been exhausted and only 11 jurors secured. Another venire of 25 men was exhausted at the afternoon recess and still another of 25 was summoned. The defense accepted the first man of this venire, and the hearing of the evidence was begun.

Maggie Moore, colored, whose home Beatty was alleged to have entered, was the first witness put on by the State. She told of Beatty and another negro forcing her door and coming into her house on the 19th of May, after she had retired, and how Beatty had threatened to shoot her if she made any outcry. She became frightened and screamed and Beatty ran from the house, firing one shot at her. She told how the officers came up, and then followed the negroes, and of hearing several other pistol shots fired. She identified Beatty as the man who had come into her house. The woman, however, contradicted herself on a number of points, both on direct and cross-examination. After she had made several contradictory statements Judge Carter called the solicitor and W. P. Stacy and L. J. Poisson, Esqs., the last named appearing ofr the defendant, to him for a short conference, following which he directed a verdict of not guilty as to burglary. However, he said that the fact that Beatty was carrying a concealed weapon off his premises had been clearly established. He directed the clerk to make the entry that bill be waived and a plea of guilty to a charge of carrying a concealed weapon be entered, and then sentenced Beatty to two years on the county roads, his term to begin immediately upon the expiration of the term imposed in the Recorder's court.

Fish Trust Casse

It was yesterday announced that the so-called "fish trust" cases, in w a number of the local fish dealers are charged with being in a combine in illegal restraint of trade, cannot be tried at this term, and that they will probably not be reached before the January term, 1913. Ex-Solicitor Rodolph Duffy has been retained by the Governor to assist Solicitor Shaw in the prosecution, as is provided in the State anti-trust law. It is said that the cases will be hard fought and that the trial will probably consume the better part of a week.

In view of the fact that the Holly case has been removed to Pender county, as told in another column, and will probably consume the greater part of the week allotted for the trial of criminal cases at the September term here, and that the fish trust cases will take up perhaps half of the two-weeks term in January for the trial of criminal cases, it is probable that an effort will be made to have the one-week civil term in this county in December converted into a criminal term, in order to relieve the congested criminal docket.

The case against Fannie Heffner, a white woman charged with the murder of a man named Jordan, may be taken up today. The woman pleaded not guilty to the charge. The solicitor has stated that he will not contend for a verdict of murder in the first degree. If satisfactory progress is made and the case is disposed of today, it is probable that a number of the remaining nolo contendere cases may be adjusted. It is said that J. E. Taylor and J. O. Grimes, two of the nolo contendere defendants who were absent when the cases were called last Saturday and who forfeited bonds of $1,750 and $1,800 respectively, will come into court before it adjourns and throw themselves on the mercy of Judge Carter.

Geo. Woebse yesterday entered a plea of guilty to an indictment charging violation of the prohibition law, and was released on $500 bond for his appearance from day to day until the case is settled along with a number of similar ones.

Bills were returned by the grand jury yesterday charging violations of the prohibition law against D. L. T. Capps, Chas. Rogers and Solon Long. Rogers is already under bond. Capps was arrested yesterday and was released under $1,000 bond for his appearance from day to day.

It was stated in yesterday's issue that Fox Riley, who was arrested last week on a caplas charging violation of the prohibition law, was in jail. This was a mistake, as Riley furnished bond several days ago for his appearance until some disposition is made of his case.

Graft Investigation Rumored.

Promises of still further sensations from the grand jury developed yesterday when rumors became current around the court room that a "graft" investigation was being conducted, or would be conducted by the grand jury. Nothing tangible was learned and no one seemed to know whether the rumors had any foundation or not, but it was whispered that startling disclosures might be expected last night or today, or possibly later, as to shady actions on the part of men in official position. The rumors had it that one or more of the "blind tigers" have declared that they have been forced to put up money for protection, or, in other words, have had to pay officials in order not to be prosecuted. One report went far enough to declare that the blind tigers had been obliged to pay a certain amount at stated times in order to avoid threatened prosecutions.

As to what officials are suspected of taking "graft" money, the rumors were altogether noncommittal. It was rumored that Mr. W. M. Pinson, the detective working here, has been engaged in the "graft" investigation.

It is understood that a large number of witnesses have been summoned to testify before the grand jury today but whether in connection with the rumored "graft" investigation or with some other matter, of course, is not known. However, the persistency with which the rumors kept circulating yesterday seemed to lead some to believe that sensational developments are forthcoming.

The Star yesterday received the following communication, which is self-explanatory:

"Wilmington, N. C., July 30, 1912.

"Editor Morning Star:—I notice in this morning's Star that the name of Elijah Chadwick appears in the list of those convicted of selling whiskey. I think you have made some mistake in the name, for I know of no other Elijah Chadwick living in Wilmington. There is an Eli. R. Chadwick, who conducts a place at Water and Grace streets. So I will kindly ask you to please make this correction.

"ELIJAH A. CHADWICK."

While there may have been some mistake in the name, as suggested, the bill of indictment is drawn against Elijah Chadwick, the capias was returned by the officer as having been served on Elijah Chadwick and the record book shows the name of Elijah Chadwick, which, however, is a mistake and is gladly corrected. When Maj. W. N. Harriss, Clerk of Superior Court, yesterday issued an order for the release from jail of the defendant the person to whom he gave the order suggested that it was Eli and not Elijah Chadwick. However, Major Harriss told him that the man was committed under the name of Elijah Chadwick and under this name he would have to be released, otherwise the jailer would not recognize the order.

W. M. Lumsden was brought into court yesterday on a charge of contempt, it being alleged that he refused to answer questions put to him by the grand jury. Judge Carter advised him to employ counsel, as the matter would be inquired into at once. An attorney advised Lumsden to go back before the grand jury and answer their questions, and Judge Carter gave him the chance. Nothing more was heard of the matter, and it is presumed that Lumsden answered the questions propounded to him.

Mr. Norment Bereaved

Wilmington friends of Mr. Richard M. Norment, Jr., telegraph editor of The Star, will tenderly sympathize with him in the death of his father, Dr. R. M. Norment, of Lumberton, which was briefly chronicled in these columns yesterday morning, and a more extended notice of whose death appears in today's paper. Mr. Norment had been with his father for ten days or longer. He has a great many friends in Wilmington who feel for him with deepest sympathy in his great affliction.

Mr. James H. Koonce Dead.

Wilmington friends have been deeply grieved to learn of the death of Mr. James H. Koonce, formerly of this city, which occurred at Conway, S. C., Monday night, following an illness of typhoid fever. The remains were brought through the city on an afternoon train yesterday, and were taken to Richlands, where the funeral will be held. Mr. Koonce was a cousin of Dr. S. E. Koonce, of this city, and was formerly employed with the Seaboard Air Line here, where he made a large number of friends.

DELIGHTFUL SURPRISE BIRTHDAY PARTY LAST NIGHT

In honor of her birthday, Mrs. J. J. Kelly was given a surprise party last night by her boarders at her elegant home, No. 115 North Fourth street. Mrs. Kelly has 62 boarders and each and every one was present last night to join in celebration of the occasion. While Mrs. Kelly and one or two members of her family were at the moving picture theatres last evening, the boarders were busy decorating and hanging Japanese lanterns on the porch of her home. Returning about 9:30 o'clock, she was surprised at the transformation wrought and to see all her boarders assembled at that hour of the night. It was a most pleasant surprise, however, and the evening was most delightfully spent. In behalf of the boarders Mr. S. R. Keyes presented to Mrs. Kelly a handsome diamond brooch in his usual happy manner. The gift was most graciously accepted by Mrs. Kelly, who thanked one and all for the testimonial of their esteem of her and assured them that the occasion was one of the happiest of her life.

Fine Handling of Car.

Master Sheldon Mitchell, whose home is at 712 Dock street, was slightly injured yesterday morning when he turned an improvised toy wagon on which he was coasting directly in front of Mr. N. Underwood's automobile on Market street, just west of Third. Mr. Underwood was driving slowly and managed to stop his car within a few feet, one of the front wheels striking the lad's vehicle and throwing it aside. The boy was thrown out and sustained a few scratches. Mr. Underwood's prompt action and fine handling of the car probably averted a more serious accident.

—Mr. E. D. Williams, of the A. David Company, leaves today for Hot Springs, Ark., where he will spend a month recuperating. Friends hope that he may return in the Fall very much improved in health.

—Among the arrivals at The Southern yesterday were Chas. Walker, Charleston, S. C.; Misses Mae and Sue Nichols, Southport; J. M. Owens, Hamlet; C. A. Scott, Fair Bluff; Chas. M. Cooper and A. C. Bostic, Laurinburg; A. H. Lucas, Goldsboro; Mrs. and Mrs. E. Hill, Page's Mill, S. C.

SEVERAL REALTY DEALS.

Mr. Joseph Winstead Purchases Suburban Tract Adjoining Edgewood.

Mr. Joseph Winstead has purchased through the firm of Wilder & Metts a tract of 27 acres of land on the north side of the Wilmington-Wrightsville macadam road, adjoining Edgewood and several hundred yards west of Winter Park Gardens, for a consideration understood to have been in the neighborhood of $10,000.

It is stated that Mr. Winstead will improve the tract and place it on the market as a suburban development. He now has a large force of hands engaged in clearing the land, opening streets and otherwise improving it.

Mr. J. H. Rehder has sold through the Wilder & Metts agency to Mr. H. Beery Willson a lot next to the northeast intersection of 17th and Market streets, between the residences of Messrs. T. M. Emerson and Edwin Davis. The consideration was in the neighborhood of $4,000.

Committee Meets Today.

The entertainment committee of the Chamber of Commerce will meet this morning at 11:30 o'clock to arrange for the entertainment of the County Commissioners of the State who will hold their annual convention at Wrightsville Beach August 14th, 15th and 16th. Col. John VanB. Metts is chairman of the committe and the other members are Messrs. J. W. Yates, Pembroke Jones, W. A. Dick, Hugh MacRae and J. H. Watters.

Low Water In Cape Fear

On account of the low stage of water in the Upper Cape Fear, the steamer City of Fayetteville is tied up for the present and did not arrive yesterday as usual. The stage of the water at Fayetteville yesterday morning was only two feet.

LOCAL DOTS.

—Three dogs exhibiting symptoms of hydrophobia were killed yesterday. Two were killed by citizens and one by a member of the police department.

—Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Dickinson have purchased from Mrs. Emily Bridgers the residence at 1809 Princess street for a consideration understood to have been about $6,500. They will move into their new home soon.

—Belle Johnson, colored, was found guilty in Justice Bornemann's court yesterday on a charge of an assault and battery upon Lucile Harris, colored, and was taxed the costs. Belle assaulted the other damsel by emptying a bucket of water upon her at the pump at the City Hall yesterday morning.

—The regular weekly meeting of the City Council will be held this morning at 9:15 o'clock. So far as was known at the hall yesterday, no business of any special interest is scheduled to come up today with the exception of a statement it is expected that Councilman P. Q. Moore will make with regard to the condition of the street improvement fund.

—The Atlantic Coast Line Railroad Company yesterday brought attachment proceedings against the Southern Paving & Construction Company, which has been doing considerable street paving for the city, for $307 with interest from June 1st, 1912, alleged to be due on contract and for demurrage. Property of the company was attached, but was released upon bond given for double the amount claimed by the railroad.

—A public-spirited Wilmington citizen yesterday asked The Star to call attention of the proper officials to the descretion of the Cornelius Harnett monument, at Fourth and Market streets, by tobacco chewers who have been either careless or wilfully reckless in their expectorations about the marble shaft. The matter should receive the attention of the city authorities at once and the guilty persons, if apprehended should be severely punished.

SOME NEW BUILDINGS

Three Will Likely Be Erected in the Near Future

The statement in The Star some days ago, when the sale of the Cape Fear Club property at Front and Chesnut streets was first announced, to the effect tha the Murchison National Bank was the probable purchaser, now seems practically confirmed, though no official announcement has yet been made. An official of the bank is said to have made the statement that the institution had purchased the property, and will in a short time erect a handsome home there.

It is understood also that Mr. A. C. Schuster is contemplating the erection of a handsome office building of five or more stories on his property on the west side of Front street, adjoining the Southern building. With the bank building, the Schuster building and the new home to be erected by the Cape Fear Club, three handsome new buildings are promised for Wilmington in the near future.

WRIGHTSVILLE BEACH

Miss Catherine Jones, of Durham, is an attractive guest at Mrs. William Parsley's cottage.

Dr. and Mrs. H. T. Pope and three children, of Lumberton, arrived yesterday to spend some days at the Hanover Inn.

Miss Patsy Smith returned yesterday morning to her home in Raleigh after a visit of several weeks to Miss Florrie Northrop.

After a pleasant stay of a week at Wrightsville Beach, Dr. Calvin H. Grainger left last night for his home in Winston-Salem.

Mrs. Nichols and daughter, Miss Kate Nichols, who spent some time at the Seashore Hotel, have returned to their home in Spartanburg, S. C.

Among the arrivals yesterday at the Oceanic Hotel were: Mrs. L. J. Barnes, Tuscaloosa, Ala.; W. L. Henry, Atlanta; M. F. Legg, Henderson; John T. Reid, New York; A. Davidson, Atlanta; Miss Grace Lumsden, Whiteville.

The regular weekly children's souvenir dance will be given at the Oceanic Hotel this morning from 10 to 12 o'clock. These dances are becoming very popular with the children at the resort and are always attended by 200 or 300. All the children at the resort are cordially invited to attend.

Mr. Geo. F. Avinger, of Laurinburg, was host to a party on a fishing trip Monday afternoon. In the party besides the host were Dr. Gainer, of Atlanta, Ga., and Mr. W. R. Sutherland, of Laurinburg. They are guests at the Oceanic Hotel and went out in the launch Suwannee. About 100 pounds of blue fish and mackerel were caught.

Master Glenn Evins, young son of Mr. and Mrs. John G. Evins, of Atlanta, and several other young friends, gave a sailing party yesterday afternoon, complimentary to little Miss Mirian Holladay, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. W. Holladay, who are spending the Summer at Wrightsville Sound. The trip was made in the sharpie Edwin from the Oceanic Hotel. There were 15 or 20 children in the party and all enjoyed the outing to the fullest extent.

Mr. Harry F. Aitchison, general manager of the Winston-Salem Journal, and Mrs. Aitchison and child, who have been spending some days at Mrs. William Parsley's cottage, will leave tomorrow for their home. They have thoroughly enjoyed the outing and speak in the highest praise of the resort. Mr. Aitchison has been general manager of the Journal for the past two years and under his direction the paper has steadily grown in circulation, advertising and influence.

So great was the success of the concert given at Lumina last Sunday night with the enlarged orchestra that it has been decided to use the special orchestra again at the concert next Sunday. Something extra in the way of a programme will be prepared for the occasion, and a musical entertainment of high order may be expected. Mrs. Frank Pearson will, of course, sing at both the afternoon and the night concerts, which is in itself an assurance that the attendance will be large.

Charlotte Chronicle, Monday: "Mrs. J. H. Wearn and children, Master Olin and Miss Margaret Wearn, are expected home today from Barium Springs, where they have been for the past three weeks. After spending a few days here they will leave for Wrightsville Beach.——Miss Addie Lynam returned home Sunday from Wrightsville Beach, where she spent two weeks as a guest at the Oceanic Hotel. Miss Lynam was accompanied by her sister, Miss Mollie Lynum, of Atlanta, Ga., who has also returned home."

Arrivals yesterday at the Seashore Hotel included the following: J. S. Everhart, Baltimore; D. J. Edwards, and Miss Gertie Edwards, Goldsboro; F. F. Manley, Raleigh; F. L. Gilmer, Fort Caswell; C. H. King, Faison; Mrs. Wm. M. Sanders, Misses Sarah and Lillian Sanders, Smithfield; O. F. Smith, Baltimore; A. E. Saluly and Chas. Hanner, Hartsville, S. C.; Mr. and Mrs. M. G. McKnight, Lumberton; A. G. McCartney, Washington; John W. Clark, Charlotte; Mr. and Mrs. Rufus T. Dorsey, Atlanta; Mrs. John C. Henley, Jr., Birmingham; Mrs. Arthur C. Parker, Jr., Memphis, Tenn.; Dr. and Mrs. Crowell, Whiteville; W. J. Speaks, Fairfax; P. D. Amon and Miss Mary Gilbert Harriss, Sumter, S. C.

Mrs. Frank Pearson again fulfilled the expectations of her many admirers by her delightful singing at Lumina last night. Here audience was a large one for so early in the week and likewise a very appreciative one. Both of her songs were heartily encored, the one entitled "Just a Dream of You, Dear" being especially well received. This is a beautiful song and Mrs. Pearson sang it in her usual charming manner. Too much cannot be said in praise of this talented singer's work at Lumina, and the management of the pavilion is to be congratulated on securing her services. Many things have been done by the management for the entertainment of the patrons of Lumina but none that have given so much pleasure and such general satisfaction as Mrs. Pearson's singing. Mrs. Pearson will sing at Lumina again on Thursday, and of course, will sing at both concerts next Sunday.

WILL CLOSE BRANCH HERE.

Gibbes Machinery Co., Consolidating Business at Columbia.

Of interest to the trade generally is the announcement that the Gibbes Machinery Co., of Columbia, S. C., has decided on August 1st to close all their branch houses in the Carolinas and to concentrate the company's business in the handsome new $200,000 plant which is being erected in Columbia. This means that the branch conducted here by the company, on Chesnut street, will be closed in common with branches in Charleston, Augusta, and Spartanburg. The branch houses largely devoted their business to the handling of automobiles and the agency for the Chalmers and the Hupmobile will be continued here by Mr. J. N. Huske, Jr., who has been with the Gibbes people since the office was opened here a year and a half ago.

The closing of the branch here means that Mr. R. G. McCreight, the clever manager, will return to the home office in Columbia. During his stay of a year and a half here Mr. McCreight made a host of friends not only in the business world, but socially. They will all, with one accord, regret very much his transfer back to the home office, but will be glad to know that he will return here often on business for the company. He will remain here for a couple of weeks after the closing of the branch arranging affairs of the company preparatory to the transfer. He is a prince of good fellows, commands the respect and confidence of the business public and will be welcomed at any time he chooses to hang up his hat in Wilmington.

Injunction Against Seaboard

The Atlantic Coast Line Railroad Company yesterday secured from Judge Carter, who is presiding at this term of Superior Court, an injunction restraining and enjoining the Seaboard Air Line Railroad from proceeding further to locate a crossing or frog on a spur track on the local yards operated jointly by the two roads. The defendant is cited to appear before Judge Carter at Clinton on August 9th to show cause why the injunction should not be continued until the hearing of the cause. Davis & Davis represent the Coast Line and John D. Bellamy & Son appear for the Seaboard.

COTTON'S SENSATIONAL BREAK MARKETING OF NEW WHEAT STOCK TRADING WAS DULL

Heavy Liquidation in Market Yesterday With October Contracts Selling Nearly Half a Cent Off. Weather Report.

New York, July 30.—There was heavy early realizing or liquidation in the cotton market today and a sensational break in prices, with October contracts selling nearly half a cent below the high record of yesterday. The close was steady, at a slight recovery from the lowest, but last prices showed a net loss of from 25 to 36 points. The market opened irregular, at a decline of four points to an advance of three points, and seemed very nervous and unsettled from the start.

At first there were evidences of a good demand on every little break, but prices gradually worked off, and it was said around the ring that all the older long lines were being reduced, while the demand was supposed to come largely from covering, or fresh buyers influenced by the continued dry hot weather in the Southwest. After showing a net loss of from 20 to 24 points tthe market rallied several points from the lowest on the detailed weather report showing excessively high temperatures in the Houston district during the past 24 hours, and a report indicating rapid deterioration in parts of Texas. The weekly reports of the Weather Bureau, read favorably as to conditions outside of Texas and Oklahoma, however, and the market became very weak during the afternoon, when private reports were received of light rains or showers at various points in the Western belt. Stop orders were uncovered as the market broke under the low point of tthe morning, and liquidation or realizing was general.

October declined to 12.71, comparing with 13.20, the high point of yesterday morning, and 13.06 at the close last night. At this level, selling became a little less aggressive, and last prices were 4 to 5 points up from the lowest on realizing by shorts.

Receipts today, 1901 bales, against 1,873 last week, and 1,413 last year. Today's receipts at Galveston, 619, against 1,193 last year; at New Orleans, 720, against 91 last year, and at Houston, 32, against 1,275 last year.

Spot cotton closed quiet; middling uplands, 13.10; middling gulf, 13.35; no sales.

Futures closed steady.

Mail Carriers Will Fly.

This is an age of great discoveries. Progress rides on the air. Soon we may see Uncle Sam's mail carriers flying in all directions, transporting mail. People take a wonderful interest in a discovery that benefits them. That's why Dr. King's New Discovery for coughs, colds and other throat and lung diseases is the most popular medicine in America. "It saved me of a dreadful cough," writes Mrs. J. F. Davis, Stickney Corner, Me., "after doctor's treatment and all other remedies had failed." For coughs, colds or any bronchial affection it's unequaled. Price 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free at R. R. Bellamy.

Ceased to Possess Even Passing Importance—Total Dealings Less Than 100,000 Shares First Four Hours.

New York, July 30.—Trading in stocks today fell to the point where it ceased to possess even pasing importance. For the first four hours total dealings were less than 100,000 shares. In the late dealings, when prices again hardened, business became slightly more animated.

The one popular reason advanced for today's stagnation lay in the fact that traders and the financial community as a whole were awaiting the publication of the United States Steel earnings for the second quarter of the year. This report was not available until after the market's close, so the professional element deemed it wise to make no new ventures for either side of the account.

In the local money market, there was a further stiffening of rates for the longer periods, this fact coinciding with the outlook for tighter money in the West. Call loans were made here at 3 per cent. with the bulk of the offerings a shade lower.

The Steel statement showed total earnings slightly in excess of 25,000,000, which was in line with most favorable forecasts. Net income ordinarily known as net earnings, amounted to $18,429,294, compared with $12,108,415, in the preceding quarter. After paying the regular dividends, the quarter's surplus was reduced to $56,483.

The bond market was unchanged, save for further weakness in Missouri Pacific fours. Total sales, par value, were $1,685,000. United States government bonds were unchanged on call. Total sales, 120,000 shares.

CONNECTICUT PROGRESSIVES

Equal Suffrage One of Planks In New Party Platform

New Haven, Conn., July 30.—Believers in the Progressive movement in politics from all over the State met in mass convention here this afternoon and choose 49 delegates to the Chicago convention of the Progressive party, instructed those delegates for Theodore Roosevelt for the Presidency, decided to have the party legally enrolled as a political body in Connecticut, bearing the name to be chosen at Chicago, voted that a State ticket should be placed in the field, and adopted a platform in which equal suffrage was the noticeable plank, owing to a contest which developed over it.

As the delegation will have seven votes in the convention each delegate will have a seventh of a vote.

The delegation is instructed to support the short ballot, direct primaries, popular election of United States Senators, the initiative, referendum and recall, an independent Federal commission plan for regulating industrial corporations, a protective tariff which shall protect both industry and employe, while destroying monopolies which have increased the cost of living, a parcel post, woman's suffrage and a workingmen's compensation law.

The sensation of the session was the presentation of the following resolutions:

"We demand that the Consolidated Railroad Company recall from the position of chairman of the Republican State Central Committee, its chief lobbyist, Mr. Henry J. Roraback."

It was adopted with a cheer.

DEAD IN HOTEL FIRE.

Four Persons Lost Their Lives in Vermont Resort Town.

Fairlee, Vt., July 30.—Fire that destroyed the Danforth House here today caused the death of four persons and the injury of two others, one probably fatally. Miss Effie Perkins, of Flushing, L. I., and Miss Florence Albee, of Springfield, Mass., were burned to death. Miss Perkins' parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Perkins, were so badly injured that they died within a short time.

Trapped by the flames in their apartments on the lake-side of the hotel, Mr. Perkins, his wife and daughter, Alice, jumped from the second-story window into the wter. With difficulty they were rescued from drowning. Miss Alice was seriously burned.

NO WIRELESS LEGISLATION.

Congressman Alexander's Bill Stricken From House Calendar.

Washington, July 29.—Governmental control of wireless telegraphy probably will not be provided at the present session of Congress. The bill of Representative Alexander, of Missouri, Democrat, for that purpose, was today stricken from the House calendar.

Minority Leader Mann objected to present consideration of the subject, which he said was one that required more study and deeper consideration before laws harnessing wireless communication were framed.

The government is especially anxious for some broad law to give relief from the interference of amateurs who were said to annoy the naval and wireless plants.

missioner Dillon. The patrolman has been under suspension since the shooting charged with failure "to take prompt and efficient measures to effect the arrest" of the murderers. File who was off duty was in the Hotel Metropole at the time of the shooting and led in the pursuit of the gray automobile in which the slayers escaped.

The version of the shooting given by John J. Hickey and Christian Walker, who were with Rosenthal when he was shot, differed in several respects from the story told at the time. Both men denied that the gambler was lured from the Metropole to meet death by a messenger who called him from a table. Another point brought from File himself, w[illegible] that "Bridgie" Webber, one [illegible] the men whose confession led to Lieut. Becker's arrest, entered the hotel restaurant but a few moments before Rosenthal was shot and looked nervously about the place. Rosenthal, it was testified, was at that moment sitting in the restaurant with a party of friends. There were five men in the Rosenthal party, according to both Hickey and Walker. Hickey declared he was standing only three feet from the gambler when the assassins approached and began shooting. He felt sure he could identify at least one of the slayers.

J. O. WRIGHT IN TROUBLE

Drainage Engineer Now Being Investigated In Florida

Tallahassee, Fla., July 30. — Charges of incompetency and neglect of duty have been filed against Chief Drainage Engineer J. O. Wright by assistant engineers who have been in active charge of the work of draining the everglades. The full text of these charges has not been made public.

The internal improvement board, under whose jurisdiction the drainage of the everglades is conducted, has been investigating these charges in executive session for several days. No intimation of the nature of the proceedings was announced until today when a statement was issued which says that "all the charges made against Mr. Wright have been heard in Mr. Wright's presence and that he has made an answer. The trustees are making a thorough investigation and will advise the public when a conclusion has been reached."

The charges against Major Wright were preferred by First Assistant Engineer G. C. Pierce and R. R. Ensey, the engineer who made the survey for the drainage work. Both of these engineers have resigned.

CHARLOTTE SIX PERCENTS.

Cincinnati Firms Pay Premium for Charlotte Issue of Certificates.

Charlotte, N. C., July 29.—At the handsome premium of 104.55 the financial house of Mayer, Deppe & Walter, of Cincinnati, today became the purchasers of $100,000 to $300,000 of six per cent "special street improvement bonds of the city of Charlotte," the firm agreeing to take any amount up to $300,000, which is the limit fixed by the finance committee to the amount of special improvement bonds that will be required to finish up the several paving contracts mapped out

On motion of Alderman Carr it was voted to deposit the proceeds of the special street improvement bonds in eight local institutions, on a basis of the capital stock of each bank, the banks to receive deposits from this source being the Charlotte National, First National, Commercial National, Union National, American Trust Company, Merchants & Farmers' National, Southern Loan & Trust Company, Independent Trust Company.

CONVICT CAUGHT

Killed His Guard In Virginia, Shot by Posse

Danville, Va., July 30.—After a day and a half's chase, Roy Sullivan, the convict who yesterday killed his guard, Chatham, and made good his escape, was overtaken by the posse at Pillaman's at 5 P. M., and finally wounded by the officers who shot him through the lung when he disregarded their command to surrender.

Immediately after the shooting Sullivan was placed in a carriage and rushed to Rocky Mount, Va. Physicians give no hope for his recovery.

TRAIN DERAILED

Several Persons Reported Hurt Near Birmingham, Ala.

Birmingham, Ala., July 30.—The Kansas City limited of the St. Louis & San Francisco Railroad, was derailed four miles east of Carbon Hill, Ala., this afternoon and several persons are reported hurt. All of the cars left the track except the diner.

There's no sense in giving up to despair on a pleasure trip, for it has an ending.

What Makes a Woman?

One hundred and twenty pounds, more or less of bone and muscle don't make a woman. It's a good foundation. Put into it health and strength and she may rule a kingdom. HIGH COST OF LIVING.

Senator Burton, of Ohio, Addresses Congress on Subject.

Washington, July 30.—Senator Burton, of Ohio, explained to the Senate at length today the reasons which, in his opinion, are responsible for the present high cost of living. The manifest and important causes, he said, were "the phenomenal progress of recent years, the striking inequality of this progress in different lines of human endeavor and the tendencies to extravagance and waste and to diminished productive energy by a large part of the population.

"Neither the Payne-Aldrich tariff law or any other similar measure was responsible for the general high level of prices," he declared, for "the variations in prices have been [illegible] considerable, both in [illegible] way of increase and decrease [illegible] as absolutely to disprove any [illegible] that the change in prices has been due to the tariff of 1909, or to any other tariff act."

He exonerated the "trusts and large combinations of capital" with responsibility for high prices, declaring that a complete monopoly in any particular article affords a chance to increase its price, but that the same result is apparent when separate producers maintain an agreement as to prices.

"One of the serious influences tending to increase prices," he asserted, "is that of price agreements of various sorts. It was one of the purposes of the Sherman anti-trust act to prevent practices of this sort; however, there can be little doubt that in fact this practice still continues. It is alleged that the so-called Gary dinners just as effectively did away with competition and established uniform prices as the older and more illegal form of agreements had done."

Another "device now resorted to, to eliminate competition," he declared, was that of "hiding behind the patent right." He referred to a recent Supreme Court decision, under which the "user of a patented article may be required to buy supplies of a certain make and pay the price imposed."

In regard to the progress of the age as a factor in high prices, Senator Burton said that "the conveniences and luxuries of one generation are regarded as necessities in the next. Even in humble homes a standard of living is made possible which was beyond the fondest hope entertained by generations that have scarcely passed away." Better homes, food and clothing; the desire for a wider outlook, which is afforded by a higher education; and an insistent demand for leisure and amusement; were elements, he said, which were adding to the burden of life on the cost side, although aiding it in many other ways. He quoted figures showing a marked increase in the consumption of staple article, such as cotton, corn, sugar and so on; and then added that expenditure for luxuries showed a much higher percentage of increase.

The rapidly growing cost of government—National, State and municipal—was adding to the cost of life, he said; the expenditure of the Federal government having increased 122 per cent. from 1890 to 1910.

"To these must be added," Senator Burton continued, "the oppressive burden of military and naval armaments, now involving a cost to the civilized Nations of $2,000,000,000 a year, an economic waste which imposes an almost unendurable burden upon the world's resources. The expense of the naval establishment of the United States for the year 1890 was $22,006,206; in 1910 it was $123,173,717."

As to increase in municipal taxation rates, he quoted from New York City statistics, showing that the per capita tax rate there had increased 71 per cent. from 1890 to 1910.

Speaking of the "unequal progress in the different lines of endeavor that supply human wants," Senator Burton said that "it is evident that science working through invention and improved methods has not accomplished the same result in agriculture as in manufactures. Although considerable progress has been made in the transportation of agricultural products to the market and in preserving them for use, these pertain to transportation and to the middleman rather than to the original producer. Improvements in agricultural implements have been very considerable, but have wrought no revolution such as has been manifest in many processes of manufacture." In addition, he called attention to the "growing scarcity of new lands suitable for profitable cultivation." In connection with the former, he spoke of the movement of population citywards from the country as a distinctive feature of modern life.

The diminishing supply of lumber in the face of unusual demand, he continued, has caused a rapid and continuous increase in the price of products of the forest.

As to extravagance and waste, he declared that it was the inevitable tendency in every progressive era.

NO MONEY FOR RAIDS.

Illicit Stills May Flourish in Southern Appalachians.

Washington, July 30.—Illicit stills among the Southern Appalachian mountains will simmer steadily for a time, undisturbed by the internal revenue service, because the service has exhausted its money for raiding purposes. The revenue officers will ride on their raids no more until Congress supplies more funds.

Lack of departmental appropriations has forced the service to recall 40 revenue watchdogs who for years have prowled the mountain fastnesses of the Carolinas, Kentucky, Tennessee, West Virginia and other Southern Appalachian States. The men will be assigned to other work pending the appropriation of raiding funds. Commissioner of Internal Revenue Cabell said today that the move would not allow violators of the law to escape.

"We will get them later," he declared. "We have simply been forced to postpone many contemplated raids."

WEBB BACK AT CLARK

Democratic State Chairman Replies to Statement of Young Mr. Clark

Asheville, N. C., July 29.—Democratic Chairman Charles A. Webb has replied to the last statement of Walter Clark, Jr., concerning Mr. Webb's attitude toward a definition of the words "Democratic ticket." The statement is rather lengthy.

Mr. Webb emphatically denies he voted at the direction of A. D. Watts or anyone else and says his conscience is clear. He insists Mr. Clark will see his sole purpose is to do all he can to advance the interest of the party and to work in harmony with all concerned.

MISS SNODGRASS FOUND.

Body of Missing Nurse in Creek Near Catskill, N. Y.

Catskill, N. Y., July 29.—The body of the young woman found yesterday afternoon in DuBois creek, near this village, was identified today as Miss Dorcas I. Snodgrass, a nurse, who has been missing from the home of her sister, in Mount Vernon, since July 17th. The identification was made by Frederick Schmidt, the young woman's fiance, an electrical contractor of Mount Vernon, and by Police Lieut. M. I. Silverton, of the same place.

The body was so badly decomposed that identification, except from the jewelry and clothing, was difficult. Mr. Schmidt and Lieut. Silverton immediately identified a diamond ring and portions of clothing taken from the remains as the property of Miss Snodgrass. Schmidt recognized the ring as the one he had given her upon their engagement.

Mr. Schmidt, after a thorough inspection of the corpse, said: "I'm satisfied it is the body of Miss Snodgrass." Lieut. Silverton was equally emphatic.

There are many theories advanced as to the events immediately preceding Miss Snodgrass' death and to the cause of death itself. Coroner Vanderverg has certified that from the circumstances surrounding the case, the cause of death was drowning."

Local officials, however, are inclined to believe Miss Snodgrass was the victim of foul play. Lieut. Silverton expressed the opinion that Miss Snodgrass died as the result of an accident. Sheriff Post, of Green county, in charge of the police investigation, tonight said:

"In my opinion Miss Snodgrass' dead body was brought up DuBois creek in a launch or a boat and deposited at or near the place where it was found. I do not see how it would be possible for a body to have been carried by the tide as far up the stream. This to my mind negatives the theory that Miss Snodgrass fell or jumped off a boat in the Hudson river."

Practically the same views were expressed by Loren Hubbard, chief of police.

The body was found yesterday afternoon by James Young and his daughter, who were canoeing. It was lying in the reeds and rushes along the border of DuBois creek. The spot where it was discovered is several hundred yards up a shallow narrow winding stream. The many turns in the creek lead the officials to doubt that the body was carried so far by the tide.

Many small boats enter the bay in the river where the creek empties into the Hudson. This fact gave rise to the theory advanced by some that Miss Snodgrass' body had been conveyed to the place where it was found by one of those casual visitors.

Catskill, N. Y., July 30.—Practically nothing of importance resulted from the coroner's inquest held late this afternoon into the mysterious death of Miss Dorcas I. Snodgrass, the Mt. Vernon nurse whose dead body was found in DuBois Creek here Sunday. The county and village officials continued their investigation all day but tonight the cause of Miss Snodgrass' death remained unknown. The authorities are still in doubt as to whether murder, accident or suicide seems most probable.

Coroner Vandenberg announced this afternoon that the final result of the autopsy might not be known for several weeks on account of the chemical analysis. Today's inquest was adjourned pending the chemist's report. Miss Snodgrass' body was shipped to Mt. Vernon this afternoon. It will probably be taken to Martinsburg tomorrow for interment.

THE KOREAN SITUATION.

Statement Issued in New York by Foreign Mission Boards.

New York, July 30.—A statement issued here today on behalf of the representatives of the boards of foreign missions who visited Washington yesterday to discuss the Korean situation with government officers and the Japanese ambassador, reiterated that no intervention on the part of the United States had been sought.

"We did not go to Washington to ask for the intervention of our government," says the statement. "The trial of the accused Koreans is still in progress and no proof has been furnished that the treaty rights of our missionaries as American citizens have been denied, although the mission work has been seriously embarrassed. Officially, therefore, the question at its present stage concerns the dealings of the Japanese government with its own subjects, and, of course, our government would not feel that this called for interference through the diplomatic channels.

"All the interviews were highly satisfactory. They indicated that the responsible officials of our government had given a good deal of attention to the subject. We have every reason to be gratified by the sympathetic understanding which they manifested and by the unqualified commendation which they gave to the policy which has been pursued by the mission boards."

WEST VIRGINIA MINERS.

Shots Exchanged yesterday Between Strikers and Militia.

Charleston, W. Va., July 30.—Shots were exchanged tonight between miners and 40 members of the State militia at Steling, in the Paint Creek district. No one was injured. The guardsmen are reported to be following the offending miners into the mountains. An additional force of State troops has been sent to Sterling as a precaution.

The miners, it is said, appeared suddenly and fired a number of volleys at the State soldiers. The fire was returned and the miners fled with the troopers hot on their trail.

All other points in the disturbed district report conditions as quiet tonight.

THE MONROE DOCTRINE.

Foreign Affairs Committee of Senate Discusses Magdalena Purchase.

Washington, July 30.—The vigor of the terms that the Senate shall use in declaring that no foreign country shall establish a naval base at Magdalena Bay or at any other point on the American continents, will be the subjects of consideration tomorrow by the Foreign Affairs Committee of the Senate.

Within a day or two, it is believed the Senate will be called upon to pass a resolution stating in unequivocal terms that the Monroe Doctrine requires that no foreign power be permitted to secure a military or naval foothold in the Western Hemisphere.

Senator Lodge, as chairman of the sub-committee that investigated the rumors of a Japanese purchase of four million acres of land on Magdalena Bay, will make a formal report tomorrow to the Foreign Affairs Committee, recommending that the United States re-affirm the policy known as the Monroe Doctrine, in terms that cannot be misunderstood by any foreign power.

The Senate investigation began as the result of the report that a private Japanese fishing syndicate was attempting to control a vast tract about the Southern California Bay, long regarded as the best naval base on the Pacific coast. The correspondence submitted to the Senate in April and May by President Taft and Secretary of State Knox indicated that the United States had no intimation that Japan, as a government, was behind the attempted purchase, or that it intended to make use of the land as a military or naval base.

It is understood that the sub-committee headed by Senator Lodge, has found no evidence of the connection of the Japanese government with the attempted purchase of the big tract of land in Mexico. To make the position of the United States clear, however, the majority of the committee will propose that Congress declare that this Nation will not permit, without a protest, the establishment of any foreign power at a point where it could threaten or endanger the safety of the United States.

The sub-committee consists of Senators Lodge, Root, Sutherland, Rayner and Hitchcock. Senator Root, it is understood, has not agreed fully to the board resolution the committee desires to adopt.

INSTRUCTIONS TO TROOPS

West Virginians Preparing for Riot Duty In Coal Regions

Mount Gretna, Pa., July 30.—The two regiments of West Virginia National Guard still remaining at the United States camp of instruction here today were given instructions in riot duty. They are expecting a call at any time to leave for the scene of the labor trouble at Paint Creek, W. Va.

Virginia guardsmen took up operations in attack and defense by regiments, the first infantry being pitted against a part of the 29th United States infantry and an unmounted squadron of the 15th United States cavalry.

Preparations are being made for a big manenver on Thursday which will end the week's instruction for these troops.

Washington, July 30.—President Taft tentatively accepted an invitation today of the Atlantic Deeper Waterways Association to address its annual meeting in New London, Conn., September 5th.
